Reurlet 5-3-63.

You are authorized to conduct the survey as requested in relet on your assurance that there is full security.

NOTE: Rosenthal is gambler and bookmaker in Miami; is in contact with nationally known gamblers and hoodlums; has been indicted but not tried for fixing basketball games in North Carolina during 1959-1961, and admits acquaintance with Dave Helper, Las Vegas, Elliott Price, Boston, [redacted] Charlie Tourine and Joe Indelicato. Rosenthal considers himself as leading sports handicapper and has extensive telephone traffic throughout the United States. Rosenthal has been under investigation for over a year but we have been unable to establish an ITWI violation. It is believed a misur may furnish additional avenues of investigation that would lead to a substantive violation oand such a technique will also furnish us valuable information concerning Rosenthal's layoff activities and association with prominent hoodlums.

FRANK ROSENTHAL is known as a big time gambler and handicapper who in the past has accepted layoff bets from all over the country on major sporting events. ROSENTHAL has been arrested by law enforcement authorities in Washington, D. C., Evanston, Illinois, and many times in the Miami area for his gambling activities.

b6

ROSENTHAL is presently employed as a sports consultant for the Multiple Sports News Service located at 1090 N. E. 79th St., Miami, Florida. This operation is run by SAM GREEN, a gambler, and there is one other employee, [redacted] [redacted] who has been known to participate in bookmaking activities.

The Multiple Sports News Service occupies Suite 112 in the Morton Building, which has a diversified business clientele. Suite 112 consists of a small foyer and a living room that has in it several easy chairs and two large tables. On these tables are four telephones used in the operation of the "service" and a Western Union Sports Ticker. This service reportedly furnishes information to subscribers on the major sports (baseball, basketball, football and hockey) and not horse racing.

Bureau permission is requested to make a survey of the above office. Full security assured.

ReBuairtel 7/17/63. ✓

The Miami Office has conducted a survey for a possible misur installation at the Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, located at 1090 N. E. 79th St., Miami, Florida. This survey revealed that a secretarial push button telephone system with 3 key instruments is in use in this office. It was learned that in addition a Western Union ticker is also operating off of leased telephone lines in this office. The survey revealed that there is radio equipment and television equipment in the office in addition to the Western Union ticker which are apparently used for obtaining the results of sporting events.

The survey indicated that it is probably possible to install [redacted] or in the [redacted] used therewith.

ANTHONY JOHN SPILOTRO was interviewed by SAs JOHN H. WILMES and [redacted] on February 5, 1963, at his residence 5742 West Lawrence Street, Chicago. Ill At that time he stated that a number of years ago he met LEFTY ROSENTHAL at a hotdog stand operated by ROSENTHAL on Chicago's North Side. Through his acquaintance with ROSENTHAL he determined that "LEFTY" was very good at picking the outcome of sporting events. Thereafter, he used "LEFTY's" suggestions in connection with betting which he did on sporting events.

Since "LEFTY" went to Florida, he has continued to call ROSENTHAL and receive calls from him primarily concerning the outcome of major league baseball games. He claimed he did not receive the "line" or odds on sporting events from ROSENTHAL but only to obtain ROSENTHAL's opinion as to which team will win. He pays his own telephone bills and ROSENTHAL pays his. He insisted he has never paid ROSENTHAL any money for information received from him. He pointed out that on occasion ROSENTHAL has telephonically contacted him through telephones subscribed to by his relatives. He stated he does not pass the information he receives from ROSENTHAL to anyone else unless he has given ROSENTHAL's tip to a relative as a favor.

SPILOTRO stated that he has consistently lost money betting on sporting events. He bets mainly on football games, but not on basketball games. He refused to furnish the identity of any bookmakers he utilizes or the manner in which he contacts them.

On September 2, 1964, [redacted] and JERRY CARUSIELLO were observed visiting on the front porch of ROSENTHAL's residence with subject. The cars normally driven by these two individuals were also seen in front of the ROSENTHAL home. This group stayed at the ROSENTHAL residence for approximately an hour and a half.

On September 3, 1964, the following article appeared in the "Miami News", a Miami, Florida newspaper:

> "LEFTY ROSENTHAL, PALS ARRESTED ON BEACH
>
> "Miami Beach police arrested gambler FRANK LARRY (LEFTY) ROSENTHAL and two pals on disorderly conduct charges last night--it was about the only thing they could do under the circumstances.
>
> " 'Wandering and strolling without giving satisfactory account of themselves,' is the way the charge read.
>
> "ROSENTHAL, 36, who lists his address as 2123 N. E. 122nd Street, North Miami, calls himself a 'sports consultant'.
>
> "His interest in basketball earned him a conviction last year for attempting to fix two games in the 1960 NCAA playoffs.
> "Picked up with ROSENTHAL were GERALD JOSEPH CARUSIELLO, 32, and RICHARD DUNCAN PEARSON, 33.

"CARUSIELLO, a convict, is free in $50,000 bond in connection with the April 10 armed robbery of the RUDOLPH GALL residence in Fort Lauderdale.

"He also was shot and wounded by Fort Lauderdale policeman KEN PETERSON on March 13 when he allegedly attempted to break into a parked car at the Lago Mar Hotel. CARUSIELLO listed his address as the Thunderbird Motel.

"PEARSON, a boat salesman, told police he lived at 6525 S. W. 135th Drive, South Miami. He was arrested April 19 at Miami Beach on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. The charge was dismissed a few days later in Beach municipal court.

"Miami Beach policeman DALE LASSITER said he was making a routine check about 9:50 p.m. of the Imperial House and Hampshire Towers when he saw two men walking south on the beach in the 5300 block of Collins Avenue.

"They ducked into a newly constructed building when LASSITER's flashlight caught them in its beam.

"LASSITER summoned other officers who found a cap with a napkin, gloves and gun inside it on sand behind the Oliver House apartments, near where the men were picked up.

"PEARSON and CARUSIELLO told police they were just strolling in the moonlight, waiting for a friend who was visiting a girl friend in the Hampshire Towers nearby.

"The friend was FRANKIE ROSENTHAL, who said he was visiting with a lady named "JOSEPHINE".

"Police noted in their report that another resident of the Hampshire Towers is gambler-racketeer CHARLIE (The Blade) TOURINE, who was once kicked out of Cuba by CASTRO as an "undesirable".

"CHARLIE was well known in Miami as a crony of mobsters JACK LANSKY and his notorious brother, MEYER.

"A search of ROSENTHAL's shiny 1964 Oldsmobile Starfire, parked near the Hampshire Towers, produced a billfold, two watches and a ring of undetermined ownership.

"ROSENTHAL was released by Beach police on $500 bond.

"PEARSON and CARUSIELLO were freed in $1,000 bond each.

On September 3, 1964, the arrest of ROSENTHAL, PEARSON and CARUSIELLO was discussed with [redacted] [redacted] Miami Beach Police Department. It was ascertained from reviewing the police report that FRANK ROSENTHAL was waiting outside the Hampshire Towers for a female by the name of [redacted] This individual resides in [redacted] Miami Beach, Florida.

ANTI-RACKETEERING
(OO: Miami)

The following is a summary of information received from MM 972-C* for the period of 9/10 to 9/23/64.

On 9/11/64, source stated that FRANK ROSENTHAL was in contact with JOSEPH NESLINE, Washington area gambler. ROSENTHAL informed NESLINE that KEN HANNA had called him and inquired about NESLINE.

E

ROSENTHAL continued indicating to NESLINE that GIL (possibly GIL BECKLEY) gave him "three bets off the shoulder." GIL informed ROSENTHAL that he wanted to "straighten things out on a weekly basis."

b6

The above conversation with NESLINE carried with it the undertone that NESLINE is backing ROSENTHAL in his operation.

Source related that in a conversation with an unknown male, ROSENTHAL stated that Number [redacted] is [redacted] a local boy; Number 3 is GIL and Number [redacted] is [redacted] (possibly [redacted] from Los Angeles.) The above would indicate a bookmaking or lay-off operation is being conducted by ROSENTHAL or possibly these are special customers of Multiple Sports News Service. The latter is a sports news service located in the Miami area which is run by ROSENTHAL under the guise of several "flunkies."

b6

On 9/13/64, source stated that ROSENTHAL placed a long distance call to Columbus, Ohio, telephone number CArson (Phonetic) 8-9736 or 9726. The party called was not present. ROSENTHAL in making this call used the telephone credit card (864-1419-H31) of JOSEPH NESLINE.

It is of interest to note the above method of diverting the charges of long distance phone calls. The supposition would be that this is done for the singular purpose of confusing individuals checking the long distance phone calls of gamblers or in this particular case, it might further establish the fact that NESLINE is backing ROSENTHAL in his gambling operation.

Source reflected on 9/14/64, that ROSENTHAL placed a call to JERRY ZAROWITZ at the Sahara and Sands Motel in Las Vegas, Nevada; however, this call was not completed.

On 9/14/64, ROSENTHAL, according to source, telephonically contacted ANTHONY SPILOTRO, Chicago, Ill. ROSENTHAL indicated to SPILOTRO "We will get a track to win on."

On 9/20/64, source stated that ROSENTHAL was in conversation with NESLINE. ROSENTHAL quoted to NESLINE the college "line" for games to be played on 9/26/64. The rundown of the college games was in the same order as the games appear on the sheet published by Multiple Sports News Service for games being played during the weekend of 9/26/64.

Source stated that on 9/22/64, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic contact with an individual now in Miami who resides in Chicago, Ill. This individual's name was [redacted] (LNU). ROSENTHAL placed a phone call to JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS, allegedly the largest bookmaker in the Miami area. ROSENTHAL established an account for [redacted] under the name of [redacted] Through ROSENTHAL, [redacted] placed two baseball bets with PROKOS for the amount of $2.

b6

On 9/22/64, source reflected that ROSENTHAL made a phone call to JERRY CARUSIELLO, a Miami jewel thief, and set up a meet for sometime during the late evening hours on this date.

In reflecting upon this two-week summary, it is further noted that ROSENTHAL, according to the source, gives the "line" on college and professional football and professional baseball on a daily basis to many individuals. He has not been known to take or place bets for himself during this time.

Due to the sensitivity of this source, any information that may be used in a report must be protected in order that the source of this information will not be divulged.

On September 12, 1964, the following article captioned, "North Miami Police Nab Fix Figure," was printed in the "Miami News," a local Miami, Florida, newspaper:

> "Frank Larry (Lefty) Rosenthal was in and out of jail again today after North Miami police nabbed him for failing to register as a convicted felon.
>
> "The 36-year-old 'Sports Consultant' - who was convicted last December in a Charlotte, N. C., basketball fix and fined $6,000 - was arrested by

"Miami Beach police only a week ago for 'wandering and strolling about from place to place with no lawful purpose.' He was released on $500.00 bond.

"Now he faces 60 days in jail and a $500.00 fine in North Miami for failing to register. North Miami Police Sgt. Edward Fox and Detective Maurice Sandquist arrested Rosenthal yesterday at his home, 2123 N. E. 122nd St.

"Rosenthal came along quietly to headquarters and neatly peeled off a $100.00 bill to make bond. He is scheduled to appear in Municipal Court at 4 p.m. Friday."

On September 7, 1964, MM T-2 advised that FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL [redacted] at night. This source suspects ROSENTHAL of committing some burglaries or setting up certain burglaries of apartment houses. He also heard that ROSENTHAL, although not a member of the Racquet Club, is a frequent visitor to the same.

b6
b7D

On September 8, 1964, a [redacted] bearing 1964 Florida License [redacted] was observed in the front of ROSENTHAL's residence. Prior investigation had reflected that this car is registered to [redacted] [redacted] Miami Beach, Florida. It is noted that this individual is [redacted]

On September 14, 1964, MM T-3 advised that FRANK ROSENTHAL has not been at the Beaux Gardens Apartments, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, in the past three weeks.

On September 15, 1964, in a conversation with SAM GREEN and ALVIN WEISBERG at Multiple Sports News Service, it was learned that an important letter is received by the "service" every Monday morning, and this letter, in turn, goes to the printer.

Observed at the "service" was a package addressed to ANTHONY SPILOTRO, Chicago, Illinois, and it was being sent by FRANK ROSENTHAL.

On September 18, 1964, an article carried in the "Miami Herald," a local Miami, Florida, newspaper, related that on September 17, 1964, FRANK ROSENTHAL, age 36, was freed on a vagrancy charge by Judge A. H. SAPERSTEIN in Municipal Court, Miami Beach, Florida.

On September 18, 1964, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in an accidental meeting, related the following:

He said that his arrest by the North Miami Police Department, which was effective the week prior, was a "bum rap." He stated that this law, which requires a felon to register, is an unconstitutional statute.

He continued, stating that at the present time, the sports sheets being distributed by Multiple Sports News Service are being printed by a local concern after they receive a master sheet from Angel-Kaplan, Chicago, Illinois.

ROSENTHAL reflected the "line" could come out on Sunday, but usually appears on Monday morning. He said that from Monday to Saturday, this "line" is improved. He stated that although he forms the "line" for Multiple Sports News Service, he possibly receives help from other people.

He discussed the fact that several "lines" are disseminated throughout the country, and that there are differences in the lines, which stem from sectional preferences, and this would allow money to be made by betting the different "lines."

According to ROSENTHAL, college football teams are easier to establish a "line" than the American Football League teams.

ROSENTHAL said that during the football season, the cost for services rendered by Multiple Sports News Service varies between $10.00 and $30.00. Services that they render are:

1. Final football scores
2. Quarter-by-quarter football scores
3. "Line," information on a daily basis
4. Up-to-the minute news on injuries and other pertinent data concerning collegiate and professional football teams.

ROSENTHAL concluded by emphasizing that any illegal activities with which he was associated could not be detected by surveillance activities at his home or business address. He commented that these activities are rather an annoyance to him [redacted]

b6
b7C

On September 21, 1964, MM T-4 advised that the [redacted] by FRANK ROSENTHAL, and was told that Multiple Sports News Service was the only authorized "service" in the State of Florida.

b6
b7C
b7D

Source reflected that one of ROSENTHAL's associates [redacted]

On September 22, 1964, Special Agents [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted] Miami, observed ROSENTHAL's car bearing 1964 Florida License 1W41735 parked in front of the residence of Top Jewel Thief [redacted] Shortly thereafter, FRANK ROSENTHAL left the [redacted] residence and engaged in anti-surveillance tactics.

b6

On September 15, 1964, MM T-5 advised that JOSEPH NESLINE was in Miami Beach from [redacted] and stayed at his apartment at the Hampshire Towers Apartments. MM T-5 said NESLINE's [redacted] is still [redacted] NESLINE's apartment, which is [redacted] at the Hampshire Towers, and NESLINE stayed [redacted] in Miami Beach. Source stated that NESLINE still is undecided about his future plans now that his wife is dead. Source further advised that FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL has not been observed around the Hampshire Towers Apartments since he was arrested there by the Miami Beach Police about a week ago with two other males who were carrying burglary tools. b7D

On September 2, 1964, MM T-6 advised that he had learned that MARTIN KANE, previously reported as having used [redacted] telephone to receive and send bets, is not the MARTIN KANE who is associated with FRANK ROSENTHAL. He described KANE as an individual from Chicago, Illinois, in his late 30's, height, 5' 10", and having black hair. b6 b7C b7D

ASSOCIATES

JOSEPH NESLINE

On October 6, 1964, MM T-5 advised that JOSEPH NESLINE returned to his apartment at the Hampshire Towers, Miami Beach, Florida, on Sunday, October 4, 1964, and is driving a late model turquoise colored Cadillac convertible bearing Maryland license plates.

[redacted]

b6 b7C

On October 5, 1964, MM T-3 advised that [redacted] has not been at the Beaux Gardens Apartments during the month of September, 1964.

EUGENE "JABBA" CORSI

On October 5, 1964, MM T-3 advised that during the recent weeks, CORSI [redacted] the daylight hours, and usually [redacted] [redacted] 7:00 - 7:30 p.m. According to the source, CORSI usually has [redacted] Street and Biscayne Boulevard, Miami. b7D

Source said that he has not seen CORSI meet with MARTY KANE in recent weeks.

MORTON KANE, Aka. Marty

KANE has not been observed with FRANK ROSENTHAL during the period of this report.

On September 10, 1964, KANE was arrested with MARTIN SKARLOFF by the Sheriff's Office, Dade County, Florida, for bookmaking.

[redacted]

[redacted] from Chicago, Illinois, presently resides at the [redacted] Miami Beach, Florida. During the period of this report, he has not been seen with FRANK ROSENTHAL. b6 b7C

BUSINESS INTERESTS

FRANK ROSENTHAL continues as the Sports Consultant for Multiple Sports News Service, located at 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Miami Beach, Florida.

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

GEORGE SELIMOS, 4755 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, advised Special Agent CURTIS A. HESTER on September 14, 1964, that he has owned and resided in this building for over thirty years, but that he has never heard of a [redacted] having lived here, nor does he know anyone having that name.

The current Chicago Telephone Directory has no listing for [redacted] It is to be noted there is no Hessing Street in Chicago. b6 b7C

On September 14, 1964, an attempt was made to contact [redacted] at his residence. There was no answer and a note left in the mail box to contact the Chicago Office was not answered. It was noted that a family named ROSENTHAL resides on the floor [redacted] at this address. There is no current listing for [redacted] in the telephone directory.

AT NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

On August 25, 1964, MM T-7 advised Special Agent REED W. JENSEN that it is his opinion that for at least the last year, the main headquarters of the nationally-known gamblers is in the Miami, Florida, area. He said that such big-time gamblers as GILBERT BECKLEY, HERSHEY LAIT (LAIF), and others, [redacted] at the Americana Hotel at Miami (Miami Beach). He was of the opinion that there was [redacted] the various gamblers on a national level. b6 b7C b7D

Source stated that FRANK ROSENTHAL, aka. "Lefty," presently operates out of Miami, Florida. He used to represent the Chicago gambling syndicate. After going to Miami, he has often joined the gambler GILBERT BECKLEY in putting out a false line to various parts of the country, and thereafter, recoup on betting losses.

Source stated that JOE NESLINE of the Washington, D. C., area, is considered one of the biggest bookmakers, bettors, and layoff men in that area. Source said [redacted] with NESLINE, but about a year ago, NESLINE [redacted] he was backing FRANK ROSENTHAL, the Miami gambler. During [redacted] about ROSENTHAL's tendency at times to set up a false line. NESLINE remarked he [redacted] a false line from ROSENTHAL.

AT NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

On September 4, 1964, MM T-8 stated that he does not know FRANK ROSENTHAL. He also stated that he does not know SAM GREEN, and that he has no information concerning the Multiple Sports News Service in Miami. Source stated that an individual known to him only as [redacted] never calls Miami for this type of information.

b7D

Source related that he understands a baseball sports ticker is located in Miami, and that the scores of the various games can be obtained by calling Miami telephone PL 4-0637.

AT NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

On October 2, 1964, [redacted] Warwick Hotel, 65 West 54th Street, advised Special Agent THOMAS M. DUFFIN that NAT GREEN was not now a guest at that hotel. [redacted] stated he could not locate any record indicating GREEN ever has been a guest at that hotel.

[redacted] stated that twice during the past week a pageboy had come to the Warwick Hotel to call for packages for NAT GREEN. The most recent occasion was on October 1, 1964. [redacted] described the package picked up on October 1, 1964, as about the size of a box containing a quart of liquor, but claimed he could not recall any additional details concerning it, or any details concerning the other package.

b6

[redacted] also insisted he could not recall any descriptive details concerning the pageboy, but agreed to notify the New York Office in the event GREEN received any additional packages.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL
ANTI-RACKETEERING

The following information was received from a confidential source who requested that his identity be protected:

On September 11, 1964, FRANK ROSENTHAL was in telephonic contact with JOSEPH NESLINE, Washington area gambler. ROSENTHAL informed NESLINE that KEN HANNA had called him and inquired about NESLINE. ROSENTHAL told NESLINE that GIL (possibly GIL BECKLEY) gave him "three bets off the shoulder." GIL informed ROSENTHAL that he wanted to "straighten things out on a weekly basis."

From the above conversation, the informant was of the opinion that NESLINE is backing ROSENTHAL in his operation. b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL, in a conversation with an unknown male, stated that Number [redacted] a local boy. Number 3 is GIL, and Number [redacted] (possibly [redacted] Los Angeles, California.)

On September 13, 1964, ROSENTHAL placed a long distance call to Columbus, Ohio, telephone number CArson 8-9726 or 8-9736. The party called was not present. ROSENTHAL, in making this call, used the telephone credit card of JOSEPH NESLINE (864-1419-H31.)

It was the supposition of the informant that the above use of NESLINE's credit card further established the fact that NESLINE is backing ROSENTHAL in his gambling operation.

On September 14, 1964, ROSENTHAL placed a call to JERRY ZAROWITZ at the Sahara and Sands Motels. This call was not completed.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

On September 14, 1964, ROSENTHAL telephonically contacted ANTHONY SPILOTRO, Chicago, Illinois. ROSENTHAL said to SPILOTRO, "We will get a track to win on."

On September 20, 1964, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic contact with JOSEPH NESLINE. ROSENTHAL quoted to NESLINE the "line" for college football games to be played on September 26, 1964. The rundown of the college games was in the same order as the games appear on the sheets published by Multiple Sports News Service.

On September 22, 1964, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic contact with an individual now in Miami who resides in Chicago, Illinois. This individual's name was [redacted] (Last Name Unknown). ROSENTHAL placed a phone call to JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS (allegedly the largest bookmaker in the Miami area). ROSENTHAL established an account for [redacted] under the name of [redacted] Through ROSENTHAL, [redacted] placed two baseball bets with PROKOS for the amount of $2.00. It was source's opinion that this $2.00 bet in actuality meant $200.00.

b6
b7C

On September 22, 1964, ROSENTHAL made a phone call to GERALD CARUSIELLO, a Miami jewel thief, and set up a meet for some time during the late evening hours on September 22, 1964.

On September 28, 1964, FRANK ROSENTHAL was contacted by CHARLIE (possibly CHARLES TOURINE) on the telephone. CHARLIE was concerned that he had not received his sheets at the Warwick Hotel, New York City, in care of NAT GREEN. ROSENTHAL said he would send 400 more sheets if they were not received by the next day.

On September 29, 1964, ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with ELLIE (possibly ELLIOT PRICE, Boston, Massachusetts), and RUBY LAZARUS, Miami Beach, Florida. This conversation centered around the injury to [redacted] Navy football player, and the outcome of the Air Force Academy versus Colorado State football game.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

On October 5, 1964, ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with CHARLIE (probably CHARLES TOURINE), New York City. ROSENTHAL quoted the "line" for every game that is mentioned on the sheets published by Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, for games to be played on October 9 and 10, 1964. ROSENTHAL also gave CHARLIE the odds for the World Series 70-80, New York Yankees over the St. Louis Cardinals. The "line" for the first game is [redacted] b6
$1.35 over any St. Louis pitcher. b7C

17. Remarks (By SAC):

With regard to ROSENTHAL, it has previously been established that he is closely associated with many of the big syndicated gambling organizations in the U. S., as well as an associate of JOSEPH NESLINE, [redacted] ELLIOTT PRICE and others who are nationally known gambling figures. He operates the Multiple Sports News Service, furnishing the "line" to numerous individuals. To date, MM 972-C* has furnished a great deal of information, however, ROSENTHAL makes extensive use of code numbers and words for individuals and teams. It is felt that if this source continues much greater intelligence potential will be realized as a result of the source being able to provide identities of individuals covered by the above mentioned "code." UACB, this source will be continued for an additional 90 days, commencing 10/10/64, as it is felt this source will be productive of information that could not be obtained in any other manner.

18. Recommendation by Assistant Director:
(If this surveillance involves cryptanalysis, include statement that decrypted material is or is not sufficiently important to continue decrypting.)

This is a recently installed source in the residence of Rosenthal, a leading Miami gambling figure, and source became effective during September, 1964. Rosenthal is a well-known bookmaker and gambling odds expert and is known to be in regular contact with national gamblers in other areas of the country. Information gathered from this source to date confirms Rosenthal's regular contacts with individuals such as Joe Nesline, leading Washington, D. C., gambler and racket figure; Elliott Price, nationally prominent gambling figure operating in Boston, Massachusetts; Joseph Indelicato, a Miami member of La Cosa Nostra in the New York "family" of Carlo Gambino; and others. Source has been in a position to report on Rosenthal's regular telephonic contact with gamblers in other parts of the country, exchanging odds information and establishing prices on various sporting events. This information is of material assistance in substantive action against Rosenthal and this element under the Antigambling Statutes. Rosenthal himself operates the Multiple Sports News Service, furnishing the gambling "line" to numerous individuals, and as such is a key figure in our top level intelligence coverage of gambling on a national scale. During this initial period it has been determined, through this source, that Rosenthal makes extensive use of code numbers and code words in dealing with his gambling associates. Miami believes that by the continuance of this source, enabling Agents to become more intimately familiar with Rosenthal's pattern and the meaning of some of these code terms, that extremely valuable intelligence on national gambling activities can be developed. Because of the excellent potential of this source and in view of positive results obtained to date, it is recommended this source be continued for an additional three-month period.

CHICAGO

At Chicago, Illinois:

Will attempt to identify Chicago gambler MAISH (phonetic) last name possibly BAER. Thereafter, provide Miami Division with background information concerning this individual. This individual is supposed to winter at the Sea Gull Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida, and be in close contact with FRANK ROSENTHAL.

CINCINNATI

At Columbus, Ohio:

1. Conduct logical investigation in order to identify telephone number 8-9723. Previous investigation has reflected that Crescent and Carson exchanges do not exist in Columbus, Ohio. The correct exchange will probably sound like the word Crescent.

2. If this number can be properly identified, thereafter conduct credit and criminal indices check re subscriber.

JACKSON

At Biloxi, Mississippi:

1. Will conduct credit and criminal check re initials P. J. MARTINO, 406 Magnolia Street.

2. Will identify the home phone used by MARTINO and check long distance calls for the period of September 1, 1964, to present re calls made to Miami, Florida.

NEW YORK

At New York, New York:

1. Will attempt to identify the individual or concern at 1212 Fifth Avenue.

2. Will identify the subscriber to telephone number Keystone 2-6380, possibly Keystone --2638. Thereafter, conduct credit and criminal indices check re subscriber.

MIAMI

At Miami, Florida:

1. Will conduct surveillance coverage of subject and his associates.

2. Will attempt to contact logical sources to ascertain the reason for and the contacts made by ROSENTHAL on his trip to New York City on October 26, 1964.

3. Will endeavor through intense investigation the entire scope of ROSENTHAL's activities.

-ADMINISTRATIVE-

The period of this report exceeds ninety days inasmuch as investigation conducted at an auxiliary office was done on June 5, 1964, but not reported until October 5, 1964.

Information set forth in the letterhead memorandum is attributed to MM 972-C*.

The attention of the Miami Division is called to investigation captioned, [redacted] a known gambler, subject of Baltimore file 166-120 and Miami file 166-170. A review of WFO indices reflects that JULIUS SILVERMAN is the subject of WFO file 162-2 entitled "JULIUS SILVERMAN; UNKNOWN WIRE SERVICE, IGA-WS."

The following information was obtained by SA LEWIS from a review of the above file:

On January 2, 1957, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] [redacted] that JULIUS SILVERMAN, also known as CRIPPLED JULIUS, was one of the biggest "bookies" and backer of horse, numbers and sporting events bets in Washington, D.C.

b6
b7D

The Washington Post and Times Herald, Washington, D.C., newspaper on May 1, 1958, published an article captioned "Three Accused As Big-Time Gamblers." This article reflected that the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) Gambling Squad, together with Agents of the Internal Revenue Service arrested JULIUS SILVERMAN, MEYER SCHWARTZ, and ROBERT L. MARTIN at 408 21st Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. on the night of April 30, 1958.

The article said that Inspector JOHN B. LAYTON of the Metropolitan Police Department made a statement that the operation of these three men was the District's "biggest gambling operation in ten years."

On March 16, 1959, SILVERMAN, SCHWARTZ, and MARTIN went on trial in United States District Court for the District of Columbia, and on March 24, 1959, were found guilty. They were subsequently sentenced to twenty months - five years in jail.

On February 4, 1960, the United States Court of Appeals upheld the conviction of these three men. It was noted that the appeal of this case claimed that the defendants' rights were violated because the police had inserted a listening device (spike mike) through a row-house wall to eavesdrop on these men while they were conducting their betting business. The Court of Appeals ruled in a 2 to 1 opinion that the spike mike was a legal method of eavesdropping.

On March 6, 1961, the United States Supreme Court unanimously reversed the judgment of the United States District Court. In its decision the Supreme Court declined to let the police go "even a fraction of an inch" beyond the limits that previous court decisions have set for permissible eavesdropping. In its decision the Supreme Court went to great lengths to make clear that what it was condemning was the penetration into the house being used by the three individuals in their betting operation. The court stated "eavesdropping accomplished by means of such a physical intrusion is beyond the pale of even those decisions in which a closely divided court has held that eavesdropping accomplished by other electronic means did not amount to an invasion of Fourth Amendment rights."

SILVERMAN is described as follows:

Date of birth: 5/14/09
Place of birth: Washington, D.C.
Height: 5'9"
Weight: 160 pounds
Eyes: Brown
Hair: Brown
Characteristics: Limp in right leg, paralyzed right hand

b6
b7C

On October 22, 1964, SAs ROMANOFF and [redacted] obserbed FRANK ROSENTHAL and JERRY CARUSIELLO at 7:12 PM driving in ROSENTHAL's Oldsmobile to the Orange Bowl Stadium. Thereafter, ROSENTHAL and CARUSIELLO proceeded to the stadium on foot and watched a high school football game. These two individuals were not seen leaving the Orange Bowl Stadium.

On October 24, 1964, SAs ROMANOFF and [redacted] observed no activity at FRANK ROSENTHAL's residence at 10:00 PM and 11:30 PM.

On October 25, 1964, SAs [redacted] and [redacted] checked the residence of FRANK ROSENTHAL, at 6:31 PM at which time ROSENTHAL's blue Oldsmobile was in front of his home. At 9:45 PM the car was gone, but at 11:30 PM the Oldsmobile again was in front of his residence.

On October 26, 1964, SAs [redacted] and [redacted] observed FRANK ROSENTHAL's light blue Oldsmobile at his residence at 7:26 PM.

b6
b7C

At approximately 9:20 PM ROSENTHAL and [redacted] [redacted] departed from the residence and drove to the Miami International Airport. ROSENTHAL went to the Eastern Air Lines ticket counter and purchased with a $100 bill a ticket in the name of F. HOWARD. This ticket was for Flight 650, which leaves Miami at 10:00 PM for New York City.

ROSENTHAL was observed leaving Miami on Flight 650 at 10:10 PM.

On October 28, 1964, SAs PRUE C. CLINKSCALES and [redacted] observed ROSENTHAL's car in front of his residence at spot checks made between the hours of 6:30 PM and 11:15 PM.

On November 1, 1964, SAs [redacted] and WILLIAM P. KELLY observed FRANK ROSENTHAL depart from his residence at 6:04 PM with an unidentified white male, Italian type, approximately 26 to 30, 6'1" in height, 180 pounds, bushy black hair, special characteristics - a crippled right leg.

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL and his unidentified passenger then proceeded to Pumpernik's Restaurant, 12599 Biscayne Boulevard. ROSENTHAL entered the restaurant and made several telephone calls.

At 8:38 PM RICHARD DUNCAN PEARSON arrived at FRANK ROSENTHAL's residence in a late model Cadillac convertible. ROSENTHAL and PEARSON engaged in animated conversation until 9:16 PM at which time each man got into his own automobile and drove to the Ranch House Restaurant at Biscayne Boulevard and 121st Street, Miami.

At 9:22 PM PEARSON drove directly to the residence of [redacted] while FRANK ROSENTHAL drove home but immediately picked up the above-mentioned Italian-looking male. They proceeded together to the Golden Nugget Motel, Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida.

At 11:22 PM ROSENTHAL departed from the Golden Nugget Motel and proceeded to his home which he was observed entering at 12:12 AM, November 2, 1964.

Mrs. WILLIS LAMAR GILBERT, (ANNIE), 856 Richmond Street, Macon, Georgia, furnished the following information:

Mr. GILBERT is retired, having been retired several years ago and neither he nor Mrs. GILBERT have been employed for several years. They have lived at this address for many years and they have been the subscriber to Macon telephone Sherwood 3-7460 for many years.

Mr and Mrs. GILBERT have no acquaintances or associates in the Miami, Florida area at the present time and the name ROSENTHAL is unknown to Mrs. GILBERT.

Mrs. GILBERT recalls no telephone calls or correspondence with anyone in the Miami, Florida area for about two years. She does not recall receiving any long-distance calls from the Miami area for the past two years and she knows of no one there who would call their residence. She does not recall anyone calling her telephone number and stating that they had the wrong number. Mrs. GILBERT is positive that Mr. GILBERT has received no such communications or telephone calls inasmuch as they are both at home most of the time and she would have known of any such calls or correspondence.

Mrs. GILBERT has a [redacted] who presently resides at [redacted] New Jersey. [redacted] is presently married to [redacted] a [redacted] company in [redacted] New Jersey, and she has resided there for approximately [redacted] is the former [redacted] and she previously resided at [redacted] Miami, Florida. Her first husband, [redacted] [redacted] died at least two years ago, and [redacted] also known as [redacted] remained at their residence in Miami, Florida, for a short period of time. She subsequently met [redacted] in Miami, married [redacted] New Jersey.

During the period of time that [redacted] resided in Miami, Florida, she kept in touch with Mr. and Mrs. GILBERT and it is possible that she telephoned Mr. and Mrs. GILBERT at their residence.

b6
b7C

Except for their contact with [redacted] when she resided in the Miami, Florida area, Mrs. GILBERT knows of no reason why they would have had any contact with anyone in Miami, Florida.

The following investigation was conducted at Macon, Georgia, by SA TRAVIS L. LYNCH:

A review of the Macon City Directories for the years of 1957-1964 reflects that WILLIS L. GILBERT and his wife, ANNIE P. GILBERT, 856 Richmond Street, Macon, Georgia, have resided at this address since 1957. The City Directory for 1957 reflects that Mr. GILBERT was employed as a machinist with the Central of Georgia Railroad, Macon, Georgia. The Directories from 1958 through 1964 reflected no employment for Mr. GILBERT.

The Macon City Directories and the Greater Macon Cross-Reference Directory reflect that Macon Telephone Sherwood 3-7460 is listed to W. L. GILBERT, 856 Richmond Street, Macon, Georgia.

On June 5, 1964, [redacted] Identification Bureau, Police Department, Macon, Georgia, advised that his records reflect the following information regarding W. L. GILBERT, a white male, 67 years, 146 pounds, 5'9½":

b6
b7C

Mr. GILBERT was arrested on September 24, 1949, for "Drunk under Wheel" and on October 13, 1949, he was fined $200 for this offense. Mr. GILBERT was arrested on February 11, 1949, on a charge of "Drunk" and he was fined $11 on February 12, 1949, for this offense.

On September 17, 1964, [redacted] Macon Credit Bureau, advised that her records reflect the following information regarding WILLIS LAMAR GILBERT and ANNIE PEARL GILBERT, 856 Richmond Street, Macon, Georgia:

Mr. and Mrs. GILBERT have been in the files of the Credit Bureau ever since March 4, 1936. He is 67 years old, and was employed by the Central of Georgia Railroad, Macon, Georgia, from March 15, 1923, to March 5, 1957. He has since retired. A check made on May 7, 1959, the last contact by the Credit Bureau, reflected that Mr. GILBERT was on disability leave. This check by the Credit Bureau also revealed that Mr. GILBERT's wife was employed at that time as a waitress at FINCHER's Barbecue, Columbus Road, Macon, Georgia. The Credit Bureau records reflect that the GILBERTS have had several unsatisfactory accounts during the past years. These records contain no information indicating that Mr. GILBERT has been employed since March, 1957.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL
ANTI-RACKETEERING;
INTERSTATE GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

The following information was received from a confidential source who requested that his identity be protected:

On October 13, 1964, Frank Rosenthal conversed with Hy Gordon, Dick Pearson, and Willie Dentamaro. These individuals talked in general terms of a "score" in Boston. Gordon stated, "It's a good score. There's no question about it in my mind...if you need some burning tools, small tank - anything - a car. I'll shove you a tip there. Everything will be in the trunk waiting for you. Anything you need. You're set."

b6
b7C

On October 19, 1964, Rosenthal placed a call to Columbus, Ohio, CRescent (phonetic) 8-9763, and charged this call to credit number 865-1419-H31. Rosenthal talked to an individual by the name of [redacted] at this number and mentioned the name of [redacted]

Rosenthal on the same date spoke with [redacted] who is attempting to collect a debt from Rosenthal. [redacted] relates to Rosenthal that he owes [redacted] (phonetic) $19,000. [redacted] explains to Rosenthal that [redacted] is from Boston. [redacted] states to Rosenthal that [redacted] is not desperate for the money but that [redacted] also from Boston, has asked [redacted] about the money.

It appears from the above conversation that [redacted] [redacted] represents a group of individuals from Boston in a gambling operation.

Re: Frank Lang "Lefty" Rosenthal

On October 20, 1964, Frank Rosenthal was in a discussion at his residence with an unknown male, possibly John Prokos, concerning sports sheets for Multiple Sports News Service. This unknown male displayed to Rosenthal a copy of a baseball schedule which only costs 56 cents compared to the $1.12 that Rosenthal is presently paying. Rosenthal was impressed with the sheets and books because of their completeness and low cost.

Rosenthal continued talking with this individual about avoiding violation of Federal gambling laws. This individual explained to Rosenthal that by adding enough material to the sheets in the way of background information on players, and so forth, the sheets then appeared to be legitimate.

The conversation continued as to methods of concealing a return address so that no one can see where the letter has been sent from. This unknown male advised Rosenthal to go to New York and talk to all the guys that are selling sheets about hustling his own sheet. Reference was made to [redacted] b6 and [redacted] (phonetic) as individuals selling sheets b7C in New York. Also, the name of [redacted] was mentioned in regard to the selling of sheets in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

This unknown individual told Rosenthal that he could have the Whole East Coast wrapped up like Kaplan has the whole Middle West wrapped up. This individual said that in order to accomplish this mission, it is necessary to contact all the guys who sell sheets.

Frank Rosenthal, still conversing with this individual, complained about the use of his residence as an office. This individual thought that Rosenthal could rent a nice office in downtown Miami for $75 to $80 a month.

Rosenthal continued in conversation with this unknown male and referred to [redacted] (probably [redacted], a well-known b6 bolita operator in Miami). Mention was also made of the name b7C

Maish (phonetic). Rosenthal mentioned that Maish resides at the Sea Gull Hotel, Miami Beach, during the winter season and that he will stay in Miami fron November to March. Maish was referred to as being a big and expensive player on football and pro-basketball. b6 b7C

On October 21, 1964, Frank Rosenthal conversed with Tony (probably Tony Spilatro, Chicago, Illinois)) apparently trying to get Tony to participate in a "score" with several other individuals. Rosenthal mentioned the name Willie (possibly Willie Dentamaro), Dick (possibly Dick Pearson), Ding (Jerry Carusiello), [redacted] (LNU), and [redacted] (LNU). Rosenthal told Tony that he could use Tony at the airport but he apparently could not convince Tony to participate.

On October 24, 1964, Rosenthal in a conversation at his residence with an unknown male, instructed this person to send a letter to all the customers of Multiple Sports News Service concerning the 1965-66 collegiate and professional basketball season. He directed this individual to send sheets and information concerning this service to P. J. Martino, 406 Magnolia Street, Biloxi, Mississippi.

On October 25, 1964, Frank Rosenthal in a telephone call with an individual named [redacted] related the following: b6 b7C

"I'm going to give you mush (phonetic) line first; I'm going to give you [redacted] line second; and I'm going to give you the third in changes."

On October 26, 1964, Frank Rosenthal in a telephonic conversation with Joseph Nesline concerning possible payoffs for the previous week of football action, told Nesline, "I'll pick up Kenny," (possibly Ken Hanna) "for you for 5570;" "2570 to [redacted] right?" "450 to Norfolk, right?" "collect 5550 on my credit, right?" "That's 19195, right?" "You'll have 9845 so I got to give Al (possibly Al Mones) 19195."

He continued, stating, "I'm going to leave the figures alone and I'll give Marty (probably Marty Kane) the 570 and give Gil (probably Gil Beckley) 2550 and everything else I'll give to the other fellow. Wait...I'll give the Greek (probably John Prokos) 450. You want the balance?"

Rosenthal indicated in a telephonic conversation that he plans to take a late plane out of the city on this date.

On October 29, 1964, Rosenthal attempted to make a telephone call to Marty (probably Marty Kane). He was instructed that Marty is presently in Cleveland.

On November 6, 1964, Rosenthal, in a conversation with an unknown male at his residence, made comments about kidnapping. Mention was made that "to kidnap in the State of Florida you have to go into the State of Georgia." No specific information could be ascertained from this conversation.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

In view of FRANK ROSENTHAL's close association with known Top Jewel Thieves in the Miami area, ROSENTHAL is spot checked by SAs of the FBI on a near daily basis, in an attempt to determine his activities and extent of his association with Top Jewel Theives in the Miami area.

The SAs who have participated in the spot checks and physical surveillances of the subject and observed him in various locations in Miami as set forth in the details of this report are SAs [redacted] [redacted] PRUE C. CLINKSCALES, [redacted] [redacted] EDWARD A. ROMANOFF, [redacted] WILLIAM P. KELLY, and ELMER C. MULLEN.

Miami letter to Boston dated 10/9/64, requested that it be ascertained if ELLIOT PRICE was in telephonic contact with FRANK ROSENTHAL on 9/29/64.

A review of the toll calls made from the home telephones listed to the subject's [redacted] at [redacted] for the month of September, 1964, does show a telephone call to Miami telephone number 758-5559-60. The toll checks do show that on 9/18/64 two telephone calls were placed to Miami, Florida telephone number 305-531-1547. The telephone is listed to RUBY LAZARUS, 1751 Washington Avenue, Apartment 2G, Miami, Florida. The only other calls placed to Miami, Florida, during the period August, 1964 through the end of September, 1964, were placed on the following dates to telephone number 538-6631, which is listed to the Sea Gull Hotel, 100 21st Street, Miami Beach, Florida. These calls were made on 9/2, 9/17, 9/18 and 9/24/64.

A review of the Boston indices gives no indication that these bets are being received by anyone in Boston.

RUBY LAZARUS, 1751 Washington Avenue, Apartment 2G, Miami, Florida, is the subject of Miami file 162-334 and is known to be engaged in bookmaking activities in the Miami area.

The files of the Chicago Office indicate that MARTY KANE was probably identical with Miami origin case captioned "MARTIN KANE, ITWI - ITAR."

GENERAL INFORMATION

During the period covered by instant report, Special Agents of the FBI have conducted spot check surveillances of the subject and his residence on a near daily basis.

During the course of these surveillances ROSENTHAL has been observed at his residence in company with [redacted] also at Pumpernik's Restaurant, 12599 Biscayne Boulevard, Miami, in company with [redacted] as well as in the company of local jewel thieves DICK PEARSON and JERRY CARUSIELLO. ROSENTHAL has also been observed in the company of MARTIN KANE, a local gambler and bookmaker. ROSENTHAL has also been observed frequenting the office of Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami, Florida.

On November 9, 1964, MM T-1 advised that Multiple Sports News Service, 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami, Florida, is continuing under the supervision of the subject to put out a sports sheet setting forth "line" information and background material on various collegiates and professional teams during the football season. MM T-1 stated that the subject has [redacted] b7D

On November 10, 1964, MM T-2 stated that FRANK ROSENTHAL and JOSEPH NESLINE have not been observed at the Beaux Gardens Apartments recently, however, he understands that FRANK ROSENTHAL is doing poorly in his gambling and bookmaking operation. MM T-2 further related that ROSENTHAL has been spending quite a bit of time with local jewel thief DICK PEARSON and JERRY CARUSIELLO rather than with his old-time gambling friends. MM T-2 continued that ROSENTHAL supposedly made a trip to New York City for gambling purposes during October, 1964, although he could furnish no specific date or details regarding this trip. b6 b7C b7D MM T-2 further advised that the subject and [redacted] problems.

On November 20, 1964, MM T-3 advised that FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL, nationally known gambler from Miami, is reported to be in bad financial shape and has been associating himself with local jewel thieves and "stick-up" men. MM T-3 further advised that MARTIN KANE, a local Miami gambler and bookmaker, and FRANK ROSENTHAL, were recently arrested by the local police, KANE for bookmaking, and ROSENTHAL for disorderly conduct and failure to register as a convicted felon. Charges against ROSENTHAL and two known jewel thieves, however, were later dropped.

On November 13, 1964, MM T-4 furnished a football schedule published by the Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida, for the week ending November 8, 1964, which had been obtained [redacted] of Multiple Sports News Service, which is known by the informant to be operated by FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL. MM T-4 has also furnished previous football schedules for the weeks ending September 20, 1964, and September 27, 1964, which were also obtained [redacted] Multiple Sports News Service.

On November 19, 1964, MM T-5 advised that subject [redacted] on a near daily b7D basis at their residence, 2123 Northeast 122nd Street, Miami, Florida, who drives [redacted] bearing 1964 Florida license [redacted]

The records of the Dade County Auto Tag Agency reflect that this license is issued to a b6 [redacted] b7C Miami. b7D

On December 9, 1964, [redacted] [redacted] Administrative Division, Mt. Sinai Hospital, telephone JE 2-3611, advised that FRANK b6 ROSENTHAL, 2123 Northeast 122nd Street, Miami, Florida, b7C PL 8-5550, was admitted at 4:55 p.m., on November 20, 1964, to Mt. Sinai Hospital, as a patient of Doctor [redacted] Miami Beach, Florida, telephone [redacted] ROSENTHAL was assigned Room 837, semi-private, at the hospital. ROSENTHAL remained in the hospital until he was discharged at 9:50 a.m., on December 4, 1964. [redacted] would not reveal the nature of subject's illness which caused his hospitalization.

b7C

On December 9, 1964, [redacted] Miami Beach, Florida, advised that although he was desirous of cooperating with the FBI he could not divulge the nature of FRANK ROSENTHAL's illness for which he was treated at the Mt. Sinai Hospital.

It should be noted that other sources familiar with the subject have advised that ROSENTHAL had a double ulcer which might perforate which caused his hospitalization.

Sources familiar with ROSENTHAL's activities have indicated that subsequent to his hospitalization he has greatly curbed his activities, apparently during his period of recuperation.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

FRANK ROSENTHAL continues to operate as a sports consultant for Multiple Sports News Service which is located at 1090 Northeast 79th Street, Miami, Florida.

This service is run for ROSENTHAL by SAM GREEN, who is shown as the "paper" president. ALVIN WEISBERG also works as a clerk for Multiple Sports News Service.

At Boston, Massachusetts

On November 9, 1964, it was ascertained from MM T-6 that there is no indication that ELLIOT PRICE of 9 Rawson Road, Brookline, Massachusetts, is receiving football bets from the Multiple Sports News Service of Miami, Florida.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL
ANTI-RACKETEERING;
INTERSTATE GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

The following information was received from a confidential source who requested that his identity be protected:

On November 8, 1964, Frank Rosenthal conversed with Dick (the Captain, possibly Gorman). Conversation was in general terms in which mention was made of pistols, automatics, machine guns and something scattered all over the house. Rosenthal also conversed with Ken (possibly Ken Hannah), a bookmaker, regarding handicapping and numbers. Rosenthal also spoke to Joe and discussed "heat" on the New York jewel theft, indicating that he had heard Hoover was handling the case personally.

On November 11, 1964, Frank Rosenthal and Dick Pearson have a discussion regarding Pearson's automobile blowing up on the expressway and other general conversations.

On November 14, 1964, Rosenthal discussed tomorrow's games and that the weather will play, also that a subpoena man came over to see him and indicated that the guy wants to be a little friendly. Frank's conversant advised him that the police had been chasing him around.

On November 16, 1964, Frank Rosenthal dictates a letter to Mr. A. J. Spilotro regarding a football sheet he had put out and also a coming basketball sheet he would put out.

Re: Frank Lang "Lefty" Rosenthal

On November 20, 1964, Rosenthal mentions to [redacted] that he, Rosenthal, has a double ulcer and they discuss examination and treatment of the ulcer. Rosenthal also mentions that he was having difficulty in getting a private room at the hospital. Rosenthal mentioned that he had planned to go "home" before learning of his condition.

b6

During the period November 20 - December 4, 1964, informant was out of contact with Rosenthal due to Rosenthal's hospitalization at Mt. Sinai Hospital, Miami Beach, Florida.

On December 7, 1964, Frank Rosenthal placed a long-distance call to [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) and they discussed the availability of football and basketball sheets. There was also a discussion regarding sending 135 sheets to [redacted] in New York. Rosenthal also advised [redacted] that he is dealing with two different concerns for procurement of these sheets.

On the same day, Rosenthal advised that he has had a rough time with his recent illness.

SUBJECT: JEWEL THIEF MATTERS
ITSP Norman Louis Rosenthal

As a resort area, the Miami Division is plagued each tourist season (December 1 through May 1) by an influx of jewel thieves from throughout the United States. Many of these thieves will follow specific prospective targets to this area while others seek out their targets subsequent to arrival here while a third category relies on finger men who reside in Miami most of the year. Many of these transient thieves utilize a Miami fence and most of the more experienced ones, particularly those who travel to South Florida year-after-year, depend heavily for cooperation from a hard core group of experienced jewel thieves and armed robbers who reside in Miami the year around, and are thoroughly familiar with the area. In addition to having a familiarity with this territory the members of this group most probably have cased an abundance of prospective scores which they will contract to these transient thieves. This group has developed effective contacts in various police agencies and certain courts which contacts are usually unavailable to the transient thief.

The purpose of this communication is to identify the members of this group of Miami thieves and armed robbers and to direct attention to their wide-spread activities throughout the United States and in other countries of the world. The international scope of the activities of this group is clearly indicated by trips of its members during the past year to such places as Bogota, Colombia; The Netherlands, the Bahama Islands, France, Sweden, Belgium, Canada and Mexico.

These individuals are intimately acquainted with one another and frequently, almost daily, are in contact with one another. These men, without exception, utilize the services of the same Miami Beach attorney, [redacted] in Dade County and [redacted] in Broward County (the Ft. Lauderdale - Hollywood area), and the same bail bondsman, [redacted] When one among them is arrested, the others in a spirit of comradeship, combine resources to post the bond, even up to $100,000, which was recently the case with one of them. b6 b7C

All of these men freely and frequently travel throughout the United States, almost always using assumed names in booking plane reservations rendering it almost impossible to follow all of their travel activities. In order to cover their activities, a fisur team is on duty 4:00 P.M. to 1:00 A.M. seven days a week at Miami throughout most of the tourist season, spot-checking all of these individuals almost nightly.

Live informants also aid in apprising the Miami Division of their activities and associations. During the 1963-64 season, [redacted] was most productive in following the activities of some of this group and was responsible for the successful prosecution and incarceration of some of the members. Currently, MM 972-C* is furnishing limited information concerning their activities. Miami anticipates establishing contacts with other such sources in the forthcoming season with Bureau authority. b7D

With the start of the current Miami season on hand, this communication is designed to alert offices receiving same to the identities and modus operandi of this particular group anticipating that it will be necessary in the coming months for the Miami Division to set out leads, sometimes expeditiously, relating to members of this group, and their associates. In this manner, much duplication will be avoided in the furnishing of background information concerning the members of this group each time it becomes necessary to set out a lead.

Note that most of the following members of this group are Top Jewel Thieves:

I. HERMAN GORDON
(TJT)
Miami File 87-15065
Bureau File 87-62294

GORDON is the nucleus of this group and he is in regular contact with all of its members. He is also in contact with a wide variety of other hoodlums in Miami and various other major cities of the United States. He has not been known to travel outside the United States, but travels this country broadly. He is known to be a "shylock" for the group and is their fence as well. He deals primarily in jewelry, precious and semi-precious gems and rare coins, and is thoroughly well-acquainted with the quality and values of this type merchandise. Some of GORDON's important contacts outside this group are:

SOL "RED" STEINHARDT, aka. RED MC GEE, former Top Jewel Thief and nationally prominent jewel fence currently residing in Miami;

[redacted] aka., Top Jewel Thief, (OO: Boston - 87-7770), who currently resides in Boston, is frequently in contact with GORDON. Boston is GORDON's home town and, therefore, his friendship with [redacted] is an intimate one;

b6
b7C

[redacted] former Top Jewel Thief and prominent jewel fence, currently operating a place of business in New York City;

[redacted]
Miami, Florida. GORDON is in almost daily contact with [redacted] whose jewelry establishment specializes in purchasing estates, as a consequence of which [redacted] entire inventory consists b6 of high quality used jewelry. Such an operation obviously b7C lends itself precisely to GORDON's fencing activities. GORDON is known to have sold many unmounted precious stones of every description to [redacted] in turn, has these stones placed in mountings and sells them as "estate pieces."
[redacted] ERWIN WOLLAND, who operates another Gold and Silver Shop in Cleveland, Ohio, which, according to Cleveland Division sources is "suspected of dealing in stolen jewelry." In 1957, ERWIN WOLLAND was the victim in a burglary of jewelry valued at $117,000., at Cleveland, in which case [redacted] was identified as one of b7D the subjects by [redacted] is a Chicago burglar recently observed in Miami with GERALD CARUSIELLO, described hereinafter as a member of this Miami group. This [redacted] jewelry, according to Chicago informants, was ultimately sold to RED STEINHARDT, mentioned above, for $38,000.

GORDON, a diabetic, resides with [redacted] b6
[redacted] b7C
[redacted] Miami Beach, Florida, [redacted] He fronts as a realtor and actually owns a few private homes in the Miami area from which he derives some income. As mentioned above, GRODON appears from all available information to be the central figure in this group, and all members appear to extend a "respect" to him which does not accrue to anyone else in the group. GORDON is described as follows:

III. GERALD JOSEPH CARUSIELLO, aka.
GERRY CARUSIELLO,
GERRY RIZZO, DING DONG,
The DINGER
(TJT)
Miami File 87-18765
Bureau File 88-30590

CARUSIELLO is perhaps the most violent of this entire group. He is a convicted armed robber and seldom works without a gun. He is alleged to have been involved in a "shoot-out" with Houston, Texas police while caught in the act of armed robbery in June, 1964. He is awaiting trial for this charge. In March, 1964, after an attempted burglary of an auto, he was confronted by police. He immediately threw his gun in a nearby car and began to run contrary to the police officer's orders. It was necessary for the officer to shoot CARUSIELLO in the left forearm and with a bullet in his arm, he ran more than three miles before he was apprehended. Later in March, 1964, he was charged with possession of stolen property (a diamond ring), and was convicted of this offense in October, 1964, and sentenced to a 15-year prison term. His friends in this group immediately posted a $10,000. bail bond, and again put him on the street. In April, 1964, he was caught near the scene of an armed robbery with $12,000. stolen jewelry and two guns. He is presently waiting re-trial on this offense since the first trial resulted in a hung jury. These offenses all occurred in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

CARUSIELLO resides at 10800 N. E. 10th Place, Miami, Florida, with two ex-convicts, but spends most of his time with [redacted] b6 b7C

Beaux Gardens Apartments, North Bay Village, Miami Beach, Florida. [redacted] at Miami. b6 b7C

CARUSIELLO frequently visits his parents in Melrose Park, Illinois, and while in the Chicago area renews acquaintance with a number of Chicago area hoodlums such as [redacted] [redacted] and most recently, [redacted] mentioned hereinbefore, who was invited to Miami for a score by CARUSIELLO, according to MM 972-C*.

CARUSIELLO is heavily indebted to attorneys, shylocks and bail bondsmen, and has told Bureau agents that he must steal in order to meet his heavy financial responsibilities.

Some members of this group are somewhat disenchanted with CARUSIELLO in recent months due to all of the heat which he has been causing the entire group by all of his trouble with the law. CARUSIELLO is described as follows:

Name:	GERALD JOSEPH CARUSIELLO, aka.
Telephone:	(Residence of [redacted] [redacted]	b6 b7C
FBI No.	134 322 B
Height:	5'7"
Weight:	158 lbs.
Age:	32 years
Build:	Slender
Eyes:	Brown
Hair:	Black
Scars:	Bullet scar left forearm
Characteristics:	Dapper dresser; rough tone of voice - utilizes highly obscene speech most of the time.

Car: 1964 light blue Oldsmobile bearing 1964 Florida plate 1W 42722

Criminal Record: Extensive history of crimes and violence and several felony convictions.

IV. RICHARD DUNCAN PEARSON, aka.

(PTJT)
Miami File 87-19607
Bureau File - None

DICK PEARSON resides with [redacted] in a very expensive private residence, 6525 S. W. 135th Drive, Miami, Florida.

b6
b7C

According to the various sources of the Miami Office, and other police sources in the Miami area, PEARSON is regarded as a finger man, and is known, on occasion, to have worked in armed robbery situations. He has been arrested, for example, with CARUSIELLO mentioned above, and FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL, (also a member of this group described below) immediately adjacent to an expensive Miami Beach apartment house during night-time hours. The charge was failure to give a satisfactory account of his presence there. A few feet from the place they were arrested, the officers recovered a brown bag containing two revolvers and black hood-type masks of the type almost always used by CARUSIELLO.

PEARSON is an intimate friend of HERMAN GORDON, and is actually in personal contact with GORDON more than any other member of this group. By his own admission, he is a yacht broker, however, he has no place of business, nor regular business hours. It is obvious that he is not gainfully employed.

Concerning the Star of India theft described above, [redacted] has been arrested and charged with this theft visited DICK PEARSON on his first day back in Miami after returning from New York. This visit was made even before GORDON first visited to [redacted] PEARSON frequently entertains a number of Top Jewel Thieves, including those mentioned in this communication, at his residence.

b6
b7C

Another indication of the close involvement of PEARSON with this group is the fact that when Top Jewel Thief [redacted] formerly a member of this group, returned to prison in Illinois, [redacted] which he used to go on scores. This vehicle is equipped with super chargers, etc., and is now maintained by DICK PEARSON at his residence.

PEARSON is described as follows:

Name:	RICHARD DUNCAN PEARSON
Date of Birth:	October 11, 1930
Place of Birth:	New York City
FBI No.	None
Home Tel. No.:	667-3559 864-2390
Height:	5'8½"
Weight:	180 lbs.
Build:	Heavy
Hair:	Black
Complexion:	Medium
Car:	1963 Black Cadillac convertible, Florida plate 1WW 12485.
Characteristics:	PEARSON is generally pleasant and appears more intelligent than other persons in this group. He has a good knowledge of boats and boating equipment. He is a prolific traveler. As of this writing, he and his wife are vacationing in Acapulco, Mexico.

In Mid-October, 1964, a PCI of the Miami Division advised that PEARSON went to Boston, Massachusetts, and while there, had some legal problems in a court which the PCI could not describe, however, [redacted] HERMAN GORDON furnished PEARSON with the name of [redacted] and his telephone number which the informant could not recall. [redacted] was to provide PEARSON with an attorney for this problem, whatever it was. PEARSON traveled to Boston in the latter part of October and returned to Miami [redacted] 1964.

[redacted] arrested for burglary in 1954 in Illinois, and has had various arrests since that date, but has never been convicted of a felony. [redacted] was arrested by Bureau Agents at Miami, Florida on October 31, 1964, charged with ITSP on basis of a complaint filed in the Southern District of New York, alleging that [redacted] and others transported from New York to Miami on October 30, 1964, the proceeds of the burglary of the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. This museum burglary was widely publicized throughout the United States, and among the proceeds was the Star of India sapphire, the world's largest, and the De Long ruby, one of the world's largest. Many other precious gems also were stolen in this burglary which occurred the night of October 29, 1964.

The Federal charges against [redacted] were dismissed in Miami on December 1, 1964. [redacted] however, has been indicted by a New York Grand Jury for his implication in the above described museum burglary and is awaiting trial for same in New York County. As indicated previously in this communication under the heading "HERMAN GORDON", [redacted] utilized the services of GORDON as his fence. [redacted] is acquainted with the other members of this group but among them he is most closely associated with GORDON, PEARSON, [redacted] and ROSENTHAL.

[redacted] He principally derives his income, however, from his burglary activities. [redacted] in a most expensive manner and customarily carries $1,000 to $2,000 at least on his person. He is an intelligent and daring burglar, as is evidenced by his planning and participation in the theft of the Star of India mentioned above.

VI. WILLIAM VITO DENTAMARO, aka

Miami file 87-8811
Bureau file ~~87-17332~~ 89-62296 -

DENTAMARO resides with his elderly mother at 860 N.E. 83rd Street, Miami, Florida in a residence which is owned by HERMAN GORDON mentioned above. DENTAMARO has a lengthy criminal record and is a highly capable burglar. He also is well acquainted with all members of this group, particularly with GORDON and [redacted] DENTAMARO is older than most of the other members of this group except GORDON, and while he is perfectly capable of committing burglaries, and doubtless does participate in scores from time to time, he is not as active along these lines as the younger men in the group. DENTAMARO is of Italian extraction while GORDON is Jewish. It is felt that DENTAMARO has outstanding connections among the Italian element of hoodlums in the Miami area and utilizes these connections and intercedes often times on behalf of GORDON. For example, GORDON is a known shylock and in addition to loaning money, some of the local Italian shylocks permit GORDON because of his relationship with DENTAMARO, to authorize loans to various criminals in the Miami area.

CARUSIELLO recently borrowed $5,000.00 from a big time Italian shylock on Miami Beach, but prior to obtaining the money, it was necessary for GORDON to authorize this loan, that is in the event CARUSIELLO could not repay it, GORDON would have to do so.

DENTAMARO is in daily contact with GORDON and has been known to make trips to various parts of the United States with him. DENTAMARO also is a competent finger man and according to Miami sources he acts in this capacity frequently.

During the days when DENTAMARO was a more active burglar he specialized in burglarizing jewelry salesmen. DENTAMARO is described as follows:

Name	WILLIAM VITO DENTAMARO, aka Willie Dee, Willie Cutie
FBI No.	394 200 A
Born	12/9/14, St. Louis, Missouri
Height	5'7"

[redacted] and EDER are the most prolific travelers by far in this entire group. Their travel for the most part is confined, it is believed, to the Midwestern and Southern states. They are not known to travel outside the United States. These individuals are away from their residence for probably more than six months a year total. They specialize in all types of jewelry swindles and have shown over the years a particular interest in jewelry salesmen type of burglaries. Many times they travel alone and contact one another on the road. They are most secretive about their departures from Miami since they are aware of Bureau interest and local police interest in their movements. It is interesting to observe that upon their return to Miami, more often than not, [redacted] and GORDON and DENTAMARO almost always arrive at the residence on the day of their return. The Miami Office is confident that on the occasions of these visits, GORDON looks over the proceeds of their efforts during their trip.

IX. NORMAN LOUIS ROSENTHAL, aka
Miami File 92-726
Bureau File 92-6692

Attention is directed to the fact that ROSENTHAL is a convicted gambler. He continues to be active in gambling circles in Miami, however, during the course of his gambling activities, he has acquainted himself with this group and is known to supplement his gambling income through burglaries, and perhaps armed robberies in association with this group.

The activities of ROSENTHAL are covered by informants as well as by MM 972-C*.

During the past year, ROSENTHAL was arrested together with PEARSON and CARUSIELLO mentioned above, outside an expensive Miami Beach apartment. Only a few feet from the scene of this arrest, police officers found two revolvers and black hood-type masks of the type used by CARUSIELLO in previous armed robberies.

MM 972-C* has repeatedly confirmed the intimate association which exists between ROSENTHAL, GORDON, CARUSEILLO, PEARSON and IMBURGIA. ROSENTHAL has recently complained to various sources of the Miami Office that CARUSIELLO is responsible for bringing an excessive amount of "heat" on the entire group and ROSENTHAL has made it clear to these sources that he resents this "heat." Among this entire group the only indications of friction currently, is this dispute between CARUSIELLO and ROSENTHAL and a lesser dispute between PEARSON and [redacted] PEARSON feels that [redacted] did not divide the proceeds of a certain score with him evenly, and currently prefers to work someone other than [redacted]

ROSENTHAL is described as follows:

Name	NORMAN LOUIS ROSENTHAL, aka Frank Lary Rosenthal, Frank Lang "Lefty" Rosenthal

X. LOUIS JOHN IMBURGIA, aka
PTJT
Miami File 87-20504

During the past 2 years, members of this group as well as their friends who visit Miami during the season, frequent the Golden Nugget Motel, The Thunderbird Motel, and the Sunny Isles Bowling Alley. These establishments are situated in the immediate vicinity of one another in the Sunny Isles section of Miami Beach.

Recent efforts have been made to identify their contact in the Sunny Isles Bowling Alley. This person has been successfully identified by informants as IMBURGIA. IMBURGIA has been arrested for Armed Robbery in upstate New York and has several other arrests dating back to 1937. IMBURGIA operates the food concession in the Sunny Isles Bowling Alley as well as a jewelry concession in the lobby of this establishment.

DENTAMARO, CARUSIELLO and GORDON frequent this establishment and visit with IMBURGIA at regular intervals. Investigation is currently being conducted into the extent of IMBURGIA's relationshipto this group.

IMBURGIA was arrested on a minor charge at Miami Beach, at which time he had in his possession, a quantity of valuable watches which he claimed to have purchased from one [redacted] Street, Rochester, New York, however, this statement was not confirmed by local police. IMBURGIA is described as follows:

Name	LOUIS JOHN IMBURGIA, aka Lou Imburgia, Louie, "Treetop"
FBI No.	1320001

On 10/20/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL was in discussion with JOHN PROKOS concerning sports sheets for Multiple Sports News Service. This conversation centered around circumventing the Federal gambling laws. PROKOS explained to ROSENTHAL that by adding enough material to the sheets in the way of background information on players, etc. that the "line" sheets would be legitimate.

On 10/21/64, ROSENTHAL conversed with TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago, Illinois, apparently trying to get TONY to participate in a "score" with several other individuals. ROSENTHAL mentioned the name WILLIE, (possibly WILLIE DENTAMARO), DICK, (possibly DICK PEARSON) and DING "JERRY" CARUSIELLO).

On 10/26/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with JOSEPH NESLINE, Washington, D. C., discussed pay-offs for the previous week of football action. The names of AL, (possibly AL MONES), GIL, (possibly GIL BECKLEY), MARTY, (possibly MARTY KANE) and the Greek, (JOHN PROKOS) were discussed.

On 11/8/64, ROSENTHAL conversed with DICK GORMAN. This conversation was in general terms of pistols, machine guns and other automatic weapons. It is noted that DICK GORMAN is a top jewel thief in the Miami area.

On 12/7/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL placed a long distance call to NATE MODDEL and they discussed the availability of football and basketball sheets. It is noted that MODDEL is working for CHARLES WHITE, aka Charlie, The Blade.

On 12/10/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in a discussion with JERRY CARUSIELLO, discussed a possible hold-up where three men using a shotgun are to rob fifty people at some type of party.

The above material is submitted as an example of the type of information being received from the source.

b. Total number of man hours per week spent [redacted]

c. If other installations [redacted] list proportionate number of man hours per week spent on instant surveillance:

1/6 of total or 30 hours

d. If other installations [redacted] list proportionate salary expense per annum for instant surveillance:

$4,936

17. Remarks (By SAC):

ROSENTHAL, a known big-time gambler and handicapper, continues to be a big man in these fields and through his desperation for money is now consorting and has probably participated in recent jewel robberies in the Miami area. It is felt that continued use of this source will afford valuable information in the Anti-Racketeering, gambling and jewel theft areas. UACB, this source will be continued for an additional 90 days commencing 1/10/65, as it is felt this source will be productive of information that could not be obtained in any other manner.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Information set forth in the letterhead memorandum is attributed to MM 972-C*.

Chicago Division advised that MAISH BAER is probably identical with MORRIS SALETKO who is under investigation by the Chicago Division, in 1963. Informant contacts in Chicago and Indiana were negative regarding subject's connection with subject's interstate gambling and bookmaking activities.

A review of references in the Chicago Office indicated SALETKO to be a "juice man" but there is no indication that he is connected with interstate gambling or bookmaking. SALETKO was interviewed and denied any activity in the field of gambling.

Since 1963, information has been received from informants indicating that a MAISH BAER has probably been associating with jewel thieves.

On December 31, 1964, the Jackson Division advised that extensive investigation has been conducted in the past on PETER J. MARTINO by the New Orleans Division bringing the Bureau's case to the point of presentation for prosecutive opinion, however, due to the limited nature of the available evidence, no positive action was taken by the Justice Department relative to prosecution under the ITWI statute.

The address of 406 Magnolia Street, Biloxi, Mississippi, is the "406 Club" owned by PETER J. MARTINO.

The "406 Club" has a pay telephone booth located inside and available to the public with phone number ID 6-9806 (436-9806), with an extension in MARTINO's office. MARTINO also has a private unlisted number ID 5-2571 (435-2571) in his office which he uses.

WARREN LUKE MARTINO is presently under investigation by both the Jackson Division and the Internal Revenue Service. Departmental Attorneys are presently in the process of preparing a case for presentation to a Federal Grand Jury.

On January 25, 1963, WARREN LUKE MARTINO was interviewed by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted] MARTINO admitted that he had made his living all his life in the betting and gambling business, as had his brother PETER JOSEPH MARTINO, and their father before them. He admitted he maintains facilities at the "Club" for card games as well as charts for all types of sporting events. He also subscribes to and has physically installed in the "406 Club" a Western Union news ticker which relays primarily sports results. He claims that he never pays off on the basis of the "ticker" results because they are many times inaccurate, but maintains it as a "customer service" for chronic bettors he referred to as "ticker sweaters." b6 b7C

A six months check of toll calls charged to the above telephone numbers assigned to the "406 Club", has just been completed in connection with case captioned, [redacted] ITWI", JN 165-10, OO New Orleans. There were no telephone calls billed or charged to the above numbers, which were made to Miami, Fla.

Re Miami FD-143 dated 1/6/65 and airtel 1/27/65.

Authority granted to continue MM 972-C* for an additional 90-day period.

NOTE: This installation is in the residence of the subject, a leading Miami gambling figure. It was activated in September of 1964. Rosenthal is a well-known bookmaker and gambling odds expert who is in regularly contact with nationally prominent gamblers in other areas of the country. Miami Office in referenced FD-143 recommended that this source be continued for a 90-day period. Bureau instructed that additional information be submitted regarding this source so that an appropriate evaluation could be made of Miami's request. Reairtel, which contains a summary of information furnished by this source, reveals that it has provided valuable criminal intelligence information regarding gambling on a national scale. Source revealed close contact between Rosenthal and such prominent gambling figures as Joe Nesline and Gil Beckley. This source also produced information indicating that there may have been a fix in the basketball game between Colgate University and Lafayette. Recommend Miami Office be authorized to continue source for an additional 90-day period.

Re Bulet to Miami dated 1/14/65. ✓

In line with requested outline in referenced communication, Miami will submit weekly airtel on MM 972-C* every Monday.

Case agent has been assigned to special assignment to Jackson Division from October 9 to December 21, 1964, and Bureau special (PATROB) in Miami from January 14 through 22, 1965.

Survey of positive information from 10/24/64 through 1/24/65 is listed below.

On 10/24/64, ROSENTHAL, in a conversation at his residence with an unknown male, instructed this person to send a letter to all the customers of Multiple Sports New Service concerning the 1964-65 collegiate and professional basketball season. He directed this individual to send sheets and information concerning the "service" to P. J. MARTINO, 406 Magnolia St., Biloxi, Miss.

C. C. Wick Special Agent in Charge

This information was immediately furnished to the Jackson Division in order to establish background information re MARTINO. Investigation at Jackson reflects that MARTINO operates a club in Biloxi, and is a known gambler.

On 10/26/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in a telephonic conversation with JOSEPH NESLINE, concerning possible payoffs for the previous week of football action, told NESLINE, "I'll pick up KENNY," (probably KEN HANNA) "for you for 5570; 2570 to GIL" (probably GIL BECKLEY), "right?" Four-fifty to Norfolk, right? Collect 5550 on my credit, right? You'll have 9845 so I got to give AL" (probably AL MONES) "19195. He continued, stating to NESLINE, "I'm going to leave the figures alone and I'll give MARTY" (probably MARTY KANE) "the 570 and give GIL" (probably GIL BECKLEY) "2550 and everything else I'll give to the other fellow. Wait, I'll give 'The Greek' (probably JOHN PROKOS) 450. You want the balance?"

This information confirmed the high position of KEN HANNA, AL MONES, GIL BECKLEY and MARTY KANE in the gambling picture in the Miami area. This information was directed to the appropriate file.

On 10/26/64, ROSENTHAL indicated in a telephone conversation that he plans to take a late plane out of the city on this date.

Coverage was afforded this flight and it was ascertained that ROSENTHAL was going to Chicago, Ill., for several days.

On 11/8/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL conversed with DICK (probably DICK GORMAN). This conversation was in general terms in which mention was made of pistols, machine guns and something scattered all over the house.

This information was disseminated to the appropriate Miami Squad for proper action.

On 11/20/64, ROSENTHAL mentioned to [redacted] (probably [redacted] that he, ROSENTHAL, had a double ulcer and was going to Mt. Sinai Hospital for treatment.

b6
b7C

This information helped establish the whereabouts of ROSENTHAL on 11/20/64, and further investigation ascertained that he remained at the Mt. Sinai Hospital until 12/4/64.

On 12/7/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL placed a long distance call to NAT (LNU) in New York City and they discussed the availability of football and basketball "line" sheets. There was also a discussion regarding the sending of 135 sheets to NAT in New York.

This information, along with related information, was immediately furnished to the New York Division who later identified NAT as NAT MODELL, aka. NAT GREEN. This individual is a known bookmaker and in constant contact with CHARLES TOURINE, aka. "The Blade."

On 12/10/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL and JERRY CARUSIELLO discussed a hold-up where three men using a shotgun would rob 50 people at a party. One of the individuals present made the comment, "We're all desperate."

This information was given to the appropriate Miami Squad for proper action.

On 12/12/64, ROSENTHAL, in a conversation with an unknown party, indicated that he (Multiple Sports News Service) puts out a separate "line" sheet from ANGEL-KAPLAN in Chicago on collegiate and professional basketball. He told this individual there were three other sheets put out across the United States -- one in Texas, one in Chicago, and one in Miami.

This information along with other investigation reflected the names of the appropriate wire services in Texas, Chicago and Miami.

On 12/15/64, ROSENTHAL talked to GIL (probably GIL BECKLEY) and placed a bet on the Oklahoma City vs. Southern Methodist University basketball game.

b6
b7C

This information helped evaluate the nature of ROSENTHAL's betting and information was disseminated to the appropriate Miami files.

On 12/15/64, ROSENTHAL, in a conversation with TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago, Ill., directed SPILOTRO to place a bet of $1,500. with [redacted]

This information was made available to the Chicago Division in an attempt to identify the Chicago bookmaker by the name of [redacted] It also pointed out the close relationship of SPILOTRO and ROSENTHAL, with the possibility of a gambling combine between the two individuals.

On 12/18/64, DICK PEARSON, JERRY CARUSIELLO and FRANK ROSENTHAL talked in general terms of the Star of India and related jewels connected with the jewel robbery in New York City.

This information was afforded the appropriate Miami Squad, and at a later time, all individuals were interviewed re their knowledge of the jewel robbery.

On 12/18/64, ROSENTHAL conversed with [redacted] (LNU) at the Southern California Sports Service, telephone no. GR 4-3402.

b6
b7C

This information was communicated to the Los Angeles Division to identify [redacted] and also gain insight into the relationship between the two wire services.

On 12/18/65, DICK PEARSON related to FRANK ROSENTHAL that he intended to keep [redacted] at the Star of India trial in New York City. He was going to have [redacted] [redacted] during the pertinent time period.

This information was afforded the appropriate Miami Squad.

On 12/21/64, ROSENTHAL, in a telephonic conversation with DICK PEARSON in New York City, said that he would send him a money order at the address of 12 E. 55th Street, N. Y.

This information confirmed the close relationship between PEARSON and ROSENTHAL and indicated that ROSENTHAL is not only active in gambling, but also in jewel theft matters.

On 12/23/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL and TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago, figured their day's losses at $5,000. ROSENTHAL also complained to SPILOTRO about the mishandling of business at Multiple Sports News Service.

This information established the close gambling ties of SPILOTRO and ROSENTHAL and gave an indication that there might be a change of personnel at Multiple Sports News Service.

On 12/25/64, FRANK ROSENTHAL and JERRY CARUSIELLO discussed the robbery of an armored car. CARUSIELLO made the remark, "It's the only way to make money."

This information was furnished the appropriate Miami Squad and subsequent investigation in Chicago confirmed this contemplated "score".

On 12/30/64, [redacted] (LNU) related to FRANK ROSENTHAL about PROFACCI - GALO war in New York City. He also talked of a crap game held in [redacted] and in connection with this game, mentioned the names of [redacted] and [redacted]

b6
b7C

This information was afforded the New York Division in an attempt to identify [redacted] and other parties mentioned.

b6
b7C

On 1/1/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with CHARLIE (probably CHARLES TOURINE) about the Bowl games. A point spread of 7½ was mentioned in regard to the Gator Bowl. ROSENTHAL indicated to this individual that he had checked with GIL (probably GIL BECKLEY) and MARTY (probably MARTY KANE) with regard to the "line" for the Bowl games.

This information gave insight as to who formulates the "line" in the Miami area.

On 1/4/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL talked with JERRY CARUSIELLO about the deficiencies of [redacted] CARUSIELLO also informed ROSENTHAL that he keeps his house key in the mail box.

This information was afforded the appropriate Miami Squad for desired action.

On 1/6/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in a telephonic conversation with TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago, Ill., talked in general terms about DICK GORMAN, [redacted] and [redacted] They also discussed at great length TONY's inability to pay off his gambling debts. This information was made available to the Chicago Division for appropriate action and also to identify [redacted]

b6
b7C

On 1/12/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL and [redacted]

This information, along with other investigation, was evaluated and gives insight into [redacted]

b7D

[redacted] The possibility of developing [redacted] is being given due consideration.

b6
b7C
b7D

On 1/16/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL talked with SAM GREEN, the purported President of Multiple Sports News Service, and admonished him for his mishandling of "line" information.

This information further established the lack of trust ROSENTHAL has in the management of Multiple Sports News Service, and the possibility that SAM GREEN is a disgruntled employee and could, at a future time, be developed as an informant.

On 1/23/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in a discussion with an unknown male, talked about the possible fix of a basketball game being played on this date between Colgate University and Lafayette at Hamilton, N. Y. It was indicated that the present point spread was 6 or 7 favoring Lafayette, and someone was for Lafayette.

This information was immediately afforded the Bureau and Albany Division, and an investigation is presently being conducted to ascertain if a Federal violation does exist.

ReBulet to Miami, 1/14/65.

The following is a summary of information received from MM 972-C* for the period 1/25-31/65:

On 1/25/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in a telephonic conversation with an unknown person, reflected that he had lost money on the Oklahoma-Iowa State basketball game. He said he had taken 5½ on Oklahoma.

On 1/26/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in a telephonic conversation with [redacted] (LNU), (probably from Chicago, Illinois), related that he had seen [redacted] from Chicago, at Hialeah Race Track on 1/25/65, and this information had been relayed to TONY SPILOTRO.

Date January 19, 1965

FRANK ROSENTHAL was interviewed outside his residence at 2123 N. E. 122nd Street. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents, the fact that he did not have to make a statement. He was further advised that any statement could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to consult an attorney and the fact that no threats, promises or inducement would be made during this interview. He related the following:

ROSENTHAL stated that Multiple Sports News Service was one of four Services in the United States. The other three he described as Angel-Kaplan, Chicago, Illinois, and unknown Services in California and Texas.

He stated that the distribution of sheets used by Multiple Sports News Service varies from week to week. He stated that he is continually working on the format of the sheet put out by the Service and hopes to promote a country wide product. He further stated that the money in running a service is made through the distribution of sheets and not through the dissemination of "line" information.

He stated that locally the Service sells sheets at two commercial establishments. He indicated these were Alfie's on Miami Beach and 79th Street News Stand, Miami.

ROSENTHAL stated that he understood SOL GERSHENHORN had died in the past few weeks. He indicated that he heard a 19 count indictment was pending against GERSHENHORN at his death. He asked about the legality of sending line sheets in interstate commerce. ROSENTHAL was advised to seek the advice of his lawyer on this matter.

ROSENTHAL indicated that he had had his share of winners in the last three weeks on football and basketball games, but was still complaining about his lack of money.

Records of the Chicago Police Department and those of the Chicago Credit Bureau, Incorporated, checked on January 11, 1965, contained no reference to [redacted]

It is believed that the RICHARD GORMAN who resides at 2839 76th Avenue in Elmwood Park is identical with RICHARD GORMAN, who previously resided at 2730 73rd Avenue, Elmwood Park, a well known burglar and cartage thief.

GORMAN is allegedly an associate of VINCENT INSERRO, a convicted armed robber and associate of SAM GIANCANA, WILLIAM "POTATOES" DADDANO, and other well known Chicago hoodlums. INSERRO is reportedly a muscle man for labor unions and a syndicate "hit man".

The J & R Cleaners is reportedly [redacted] by JOSEPH FERRIOLA and [redacted] is b6 alleged to be [redacted] of FIORE BUCCIERI, a b7C lieutenant of SAM GIANCANA, and FERRIOLA is recognized as a "hit man" for GIANCANA.

The Sahara Inn, since its inception a few years ago, has had a history of trouble due to syndicate money that has controlled it.

Records of the Chicago Police Department checked on January 12, 1965, under their number 57522, revealed that CARUSIELLO, since 1952, has a lengthy record of armed robbery in the Chicago area. He has also resided at 1625 NE 126th Street, North Miami, Florida, under the name GERALD J. CARUSIELLO. Under the latter name he was arrested by the FBI in Chicago for Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution but was not tried. GERALD J. CARUSIELLO is presently considered a top jewel thief by the Chicago Office.

A credit and arrest check on [redacted] at b6
the Chicago Credit Bureau, Incorporated, and the Chicago b7C
Police Department, respectively, on January 12, 1965, revealed that [redacted] was the defendant in a judgment for $520.00 on 8/3/64, instituted by [redacted] No police record identifiable with [redacted] was located.

At New Orleans, Louisiana

On October 16, 1964, MM T-5 advised SA REED W. JENSEN that several years ago there was a light heavy or heavy weight fighter by the name of HENRY JOHNSON fighting in Madison Square Garden in New York City. JOHNSON on attempting to answer the bell at the end of a round found that he could not lift his arms and the fight was forfeited. The story was in the gambling industry that LEFTY ROSENTHAL, Miami gambler, and sometimes associated with the Washington, D.C. JOE NESLINE and Miami gambler, GILBERT BECKLEY, had contacted JOHNSON prior to the fight and through some means had given JOHNSON a "doped" orange which later resulted in JOHNSON's partial temporary paralysis. He said LEFTY was thereafter known in the industry as the "orange man."

At this time the source also recalled that three or four years ago when the Oklahoma University football squad playing the Northwestern University had become sick from food poisoning, the story was going around the gambling industry that ROSENTHAL had somehow tampered with the squad's fruit salad and this had caused the majority of the squad to become ill.

Source advised he had no first-hand knowledge concerning the above but it was "gossip" among the major gamblers in the United States. Concerning a so-called sports line utilized by major gamblers in the United States, the source advised on December 9, 1964, that there is one service line that comes out once a day originating in Chicago and controlled by the Italian criminal element. Source stated that [redacted] obtains it through LEFTY ROSENTHAL, well known Miami, Florida, gambler and associate of GILBERT LEE BECKLEY, another Miami gambler. b7D

This service line is strictly a service but source does not know the amount paid for this line. He knows that you cannot bet "into" this line. He knows of no one locally who subscribes to this line. This service line [redacted] is utilized by the various gamblers in that their own handicappers establish their own line from [redacted] Apparently the people who put out this line [redacted] sufficient information in establishing a basic line. b7D

Source was of the opinion that if LEFTY ROSENTHAL puts out this line from Miami, it undoubtedly is controlled by the so-called "Mafia" as he feels ROSENTHAL is controlled by this group.

The following information was received from a confidential source who requested that his identity be protected:

On January 4, 1965, Frank Rosenthal talked with Gerry Carusiello about the deficiencies of [redacted] Carusiello also informed Rosenthal that he keeps his house key in the mail box.

b6
b7C

On January 6,1965, Frank Rosenthal, in a telephonic conversation with Tony Spilotro, Chicago, Illinois, talked in general terms about Dick Gorman, [redacted] [redacted] They also discussed at great length Tony's inability to pay off his gambling debts.

On January 12, 1965, Frank Rosenthal and [redacted] [redacted]

On January 16, 1965, Frank Rosenthal talked with Sam Green, the purported President of Multiple Sports News Service, and admonished him for his mishandling of "line" information.

On January 23, 1965, Frank Rosenthal, in a discussion with an unknown male, talked about the possible fix of a basketball game being played on this date between Colgate University and Lafayette at Hamilton, New York. It was indicated that the present point spread was 6 or 7 favoring Lafayette, and someone was for Lafayette.

RE: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

On January 25, 1965, Frank Rosenthal, in a telephonic conversation with an unknown person, reflected that he had lost money on the Oklahoma-Iowa State basketball game. He said he had taken 5½ on Oklahoma.

On January 26, 1965, Frank Rosenthal, in a telephonic conversation with [redacted] (Last Name Unknown), (probably from Chicago, Illinois), related that he had seen [redacted] from Chicago, at Hialeah Race Track on January 25, 1965, and this information had been relayed to Tony Spilotro. b6 b7C

Rosenthal intimated from this conversation with [redacted] that either [redacted] or Tony were after an individual by the name of [redacted] This individual was expected to visit Miami and it would be taken care of here rather than Chicago.

On January 27, 1965, Frank Rosenthal, in a telephonic conversation with Alvin Weisberg, (employee of Multiple Sports News Service), gave Weisberg instructions about the mailing of basketball sheets. Rosenthal also told Weisberg that John "Peanuts" Tronolone was currently running a game of ziganette every night at the Sunnyland Shopping Center, Miami Beach, Florida.

On January 30, 1965, Frank Rosenthal, in a telephonic conversation with Stanley Green, (employee of Multiple Sports News Service), told Green that he was very angry over the work of a new employee at the "Service." Rosenthal instructed Green to get him off the telephones as he has cost us $30.00 in two days by giving partners two different "lines."

On February 1, 1965, Frank Rosenthal was in telephonic contact with Gerry Carusiello (top Miami jewel thief), who was confined to Dade County Jail on a charge of forging his driver's license. He wanted Rosenthal to obtain a bondsman for him.

Frank Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with Tony Spilotro, Chicago, Illinois, in regard to the Patterson versus Churvalo heavy-weight fight. Rosenthal wanted Spilotro not to bet heavily on this fight.

On February 2, 1965, Frank Rosenthal and Tony Spilotro in telephonic contact. Spilotro instructs Rosenthal to have him say "hello" to Dick Pearson (top Miami jewel thief) for him. Rosenthal informed Spilotro that the University of Miami basketball team had been very lucky in their last two encounters and he was going to bet a dime on the University of Miami (Ohio) at 4½ points.

On February 3, 1965, Frank Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with Alvin Weisberg, employee of Multiple Sports News Service. Weisberg informed Rosenthal that he had received information from [redacted] [redacted] telephonically, that [redacted] of the Los Angeles Lakers would be out of action tonight's pro basketball game. He also informed Rosenthal that the number 13 Sheets had come in today from [redacted] Los Angeles, California.

b6

[redacted] explained to ROSENTHAL about his troubles with the FBI and said that he had [redacted] ROSENTHAL asked [redacted] if he had talked with his attorney [redacted] about ROSENTHAL's testifying at any court proceedings. [redacted] said that [redacted] was delighted that ROSENTHAL wanted to testify and told ROSENTHAL that [redacted] is not charging him any fee on this case because [redacted] loaned [redacted] money for his political campaign.

On March 5, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL was in a general discussion with JOSEPH NESLINE. NESLINE told ROSENTHAL that if he continued associating and working with the jewel thieves in Miami, he would spend the rest of his days behind bars. NESLINE told him to stick to what he knew and he would never get caught.

FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

NESLINE talked to an unknown party at Miami [redacted] telephone number [redacted] (This number is listed to [redacted] [redacted] NESLINE told this individual that he was staying at CHARLIE's apartment and would try to contact him later on in the week. (Investigation reflects that NESLINE is presently staying at CHARLES TOURINE's apartment, Hampshire Towers, Miami Beach, Florida.)

On March 6, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in a conversation with an employee of Multiple Sports News Service, okayed an account for HARRY BOCK, 15 - 16th Street, West New York, New Jersey, for 60 basketball sheets and an unknown quantity of baseball books.

ROSENTHAL mentioned to WEISBERG that NATTIE (probably NATTIE MILLER, Washington area bookmaker) is still in town and can be reached at the Seagull Hotel or by talking to "POSSUM."

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL also reflected in this telephone conversation with WEISBERG that [redacted] who worked at Angel-Kaplan, Chicago, Illinois, was staying at the Golden Nugget Motel, Miami Beach, Florida.

On March 7, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in a telephonic conversation with an employee of Multiple Sports News Service, asked if all the books had been sent out and also mentioned that there was an error on one of the games as the printer had not changed the time from Pacific Standard Time to Eastern Standard Time. (Previous investigation reflects that Multiple Sports News Service received their schedule material from J. K.'s Sports Journal, Los Angeles, California.)

ReBulet to Miami dated 1/14/65 and Miami airtel to Bureau dated 3/8/65.

The following is a summary of information received from MM 972-C* for the period 3/8-15/65:

FRANK ROSENTHAL and DICK PEARSON (Miami Top Jewel Thief) discussed in general terms jewel scores that PEARSON had participated in. PEARSON indicated that he made a $200,000 mistake on New Year's Eve.

PEARSON related to ROSENTHAL "we are all broke." PEARSON said that the job in Palm Beach is his and not that of TONY (probably TONY SPILOTRO), Chicago jewel thief, or that of DING (JERRY CARUSIELLO).

PEARSON reported that when he and ROSENTHAL have financial difficulties they should help each other out. PEARSON said that he realized that ROSENTHAL had a bad gambling season and would like to help ROSENTHAL repay his debt of $8,000 to TONY GOEBLES (ANTHONY RICCI).

ROSENTHAL and PEARSON discuss a score they contemplate will net $100,000 for the four participants.

JERRY CARUSIELLO related to ROSENTHAL and PEARSON that the Rascal House job could not be worked out as there are too many deputies in the area when the armored truck is around. CARUSIELLO said a better score as far as a armored truck is concerned would be at the Luau which is located on the 79th Street Causeway. He said they come on Monday between 1:15 and 1:30 p.m. He insinuated that they would need about nine people for this job.

The above three individuals conversed about another score they are planning at the Imperial House. They discuss the floor of the apartment which they hope to hit, the structure of the roof, and the fact that the sliding glass door and the safe are "bugged." PEARSON stated that [redacted] had told him that there were burglar buttons all over the place and when the doors open the alarm goes off. PEARSON said that he would estimate this job would net them $120,000.

On 3/10/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL and DICK PEARSON discussed in general terms the need of acquiring certain supplies for their activities.

b6
b7C

On 3/11/65, ROSENTHAL telephonically contacted Multiple Sports News Service and wanted to know if ELLIOTT (probably ELLIOTT PRICE, Boston gambler) had called in.

ROSENTHAL and DICK PEARSON discussed the possibility of securing some Japanese radios. PEARSON advised that he would check out the house and the front door hinges and said "we aint going through the wall."

On 3/12/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service, okayed the account of [redacted] a Miami bookmaker, for baseball service for the coming season.

On 3/15/65, ROSENTHAL advised Multiple Sports News Service that ELLIOTT PRICE had just come into town on this date and was staying at the Seagull Motel.

17. Remarks (By SAC):

FRANK ROSENTHAL continues to reside in the Miami area and is currently a sports handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service and is also a big-time gambler. Recently he has also associated himself with top Miami jewel thieves in order to obtain money which he has lost in his gambling endeavors. Information has been received through this source that ROSENTHAL has been in contact with nation-wide gambling figures JOSEPH NESLINE, GIL BECKLEY and [redacted] and it is felt that continued use of this source will afford continued valuable information in the areas of anti-racketeering, gambling and jewel theft matters. UACB, this source will be continued for an additional 90 days commencing 4/10/65 as it is felt that this source will be productive of information that could not be obtained in any other manner.

18. Recommendation by Assistant Director:

On March 28, 1965, the following article appeared in "The Miami News", Miami, Florida:

"GAMBLER MEETS THE FEDS ON RAID, LEAVES FAST

"The Internal Revenue Service and gambler-playboy Frank Larry (Lefty) Rosenthal paid separate visits to a North Miami apartment yesterday.

"The IRS was there on business.

"Lefty was there on pleasure.

"The five agents for the Intelligence Division of IRS arrested Martin P. Kane, 44, of of 1705 NE 116th Rd., where the raid was made, and Martin Sklaroff, 33, of 12434 NE 1st Ave.

"They were charged with failure to buy a government gambling stamp before engaging in bookmaking operations, said J. K. Smith, group supervisor of the Intelligence Division.

"Smith said records taken in the raid on the $180-a-month apartment indicated a business of $4,000 to $5,000 a day.

"Shortly after the agent knocked on the door and were admitted by a maid named Nellie, another knock was heard.

"The agents opened the door to greet Rosenthal, well-known nationally in gambling circles and before the Senate Investigations cubcommittee.

'What's going on?' asked Lefty. 'A raid,' answered an agent.

"Lefty looked around and asked Sklaroff if he could do anything for him. Sklaroff said no, and Lefty said he had to go.

"Supervisor Smith said they had nothing to hold Lefty for and let him move on.

"Smith said numerous bookmaking records and scratch sheets were found, along with an adding machine and two telephones.

"During the raid agents answered the telephone constantly, but most parties on the other end hung up when they didn't recognize the voice.

"One didn't, though. A woman calling from Jacksonville gave a code number -- 82 -- and placed a bet of $300 across the board on, ironically, 'Federal Seal' in the 5th at Oaklawn in Hot Springs. (The horse ran out of the money).

Also found in the apartment was a front page of the March 11 Nashville Tennessean with the headline 'U.S. Indicts 7 gamblers.'

"Kane and Sklaroff were released on $2,000 bonds pending a preliminary hearing before a U.S. Commissioner.

"Kane and Sklaroff also were arrested together Sept. 10, 1964, sitting in chairs, outside Biscayne Boulevard phone booths. Police said they did about $800 worth of bookmaking.

"Smith said Sklaroff was convicted last month in Jacksonville for failure to buy a gambling stamp, and is awaiting sentence."

HYMAN "HYMIE THE ACE" FEINGOLD was interviewed at his restaurant, "Ronny's Steak House", 14 West Randolph, Chicago. Prior to the interview he was advised that he did not have to give a statement that anything he did say could be used against him in a court of law, and he had the right to consult an attorney.

FEINGOLD readily admitted being a handicapper for 30 years but no longer engages in basketball handicapping. He stated that his specialty is horses and that he is at the local tracks every day during the thoroughbred season. He stated that in connection with the Seattle University basketball bribery case he recalled that the point spread on the pertinent Seattle-Idaho game started out at 18 points but prior to the game went to 17 points, Seattle being favored. He stated that so far as he knows, BILL KAPLAN was the only one in Chicago putting out a "line" on that game.

When asked what he knew about [redacted] FEINGOLD stated that he had heard of him and that some time ago, [redacted] had sent a fellow named [redacted] to approach him concerning getting his "teams". He didn't accept the offer but learned that [redacted] had apparently been successful through Chicago bookies in learning the identities of teams FEINGOLD was betting on.

In discussing handicapping, FEINGOLD stated that he considers [redacted] from Milwaukee, [redacted] from Toledo, and ELLIOTT PRICE from Boston, as three of the best handicappers in business today. He stated that PRICE specializes in fights and baseball.

FEINGOLD mentioned that the best man he ever knew in this business was [redacted] of Chicago. He recalled that [redacted] was a genius and was considered the greatest when it came to football and baseball handicapping. He stated that not only was [redacted] brilliant but he was honest. He stated that [redacted] was the only man he ever knew that could give odds on a game at any time during the actual playing of the game. b6 b7C

In connection with FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL, FEINGOLD stated that he hasn't seen "LEFTY" in ten years but does know that "LEFTY" is selling a service to bookies in Miami. He described "LEFTY" as a "HOLLYWOOD" type guy that puts on a big show and always acts the "big shot" and wears silk suits. He stated that "LEFTY" used to be partners of two men known to him only as [redacted] and [redacted] last names unknown. He pointed out that [redacted] now has a bar on Michigan Avenue in Chicago across the street from the Sheraton Hotel. He recalled that [redacted] used to have a bar in Los Angeles.

In conclusion, FEINGOLD stated that he is a friend of JOSEPH EPSTEIN and lives in the St. Clair Hotel in Chicago, where EPSTEIN also resides. He declared that he knows nothing of any gambling that EPSTEIN does and that it is a big mystery where EPSTEIN gets his money.

During this interview the following description of FEINGOLD was obtained:

GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

The following information was received from a confidential source who requested that his identity be protected:

On March 8, 1965, Frank Rosenthal and Dick Pearson (Miami Top Jewel Thief), discussed in general terms jewel scores that Pearson had participated in. Pearson indicated that he made a $200,000 mistake on New Year's Eve.

Pearson related to Rosenthal "we are all broke." Pearson said that the job in Palm Beach is his and not that of Tony (probably Tony Spilotro), Chicago jewel thief, or that of Ding (Gerry Carusiello).

Pearson reported that when he and Rosenthal have financial difficulties they should help each other out. Pearson said that he realized that Rosenthal had a bad gambling season and would like to help Rosenthal repay his debt of $8,000 to Tony Goebles (Anthony Ricci).

Rosenthal and Pearson discuss a score they contemplate will net $100,000 for the four participants.

On March 17, 1965, Rosenthal telephonically contacted Alvin Weisberg and informed him that [redacted] is in town from New Orleans as he saw him at the exhibition baseball game on this date. Rosenthal advised Weisberg (Multiple Sports News Service) to give [redacted] free service and use No. [redacted]

On March 21, 1965, Frank Rosenthal was in a conversation with [redacted] He mentioned the fact that he was expecting a couple of Dick Pearson's friends over that evening but did not think that [redacted] would want to see these people. He discussed with [redacted] the recent shotgun episode at Gerry Carusiello's apartment. Carusiello thought this was the work of the Sheriff's Department and Rosenthal said he would be speaking with Lt. [redacted] about the matter in a few days.

On March 22, 1965, Rosenthal telephonically contacted Multiple Sports News Service and inquired how much Account No. 312 (Angel-Kaplan) owes the "service". An amount of $700.00 was mentioned by Rosenthal.

b6
b7C

On March 23, 1965, Rosenthal, in a telephonic conversation with Sam Green, (Multiple Sports News Service) inquired as to what time Kaufman was getting out the first "line." He said he had received complaints from [redacted] and Hershie Laff. Rosenthal inquired as to Kaufman's telephone number and repeated the number 865-9745.

Rosenthal, on March 24, 1965, telephonically contacted Sam Green (Multiple Sports News Service) to get the new account numbers. Subsequent conversation reflected [redacted] Account [redacted] Ken Hanna, Account #203, and [redacted] Account [redacted].

On March 25, 1965, Frank Rosenthal telephonically contacted Elliot Price at the Seagull Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida. A heated argument ensued as to their different betting techniques. Rosenthal accused Price of never giving him the "smart" games to bet. Rosenthal said he would repay the $1,000 tomorrow.

On March 26, 1965, Frank Rosenthal, in telephonic conversation with unknown male requested the new telephone numbers for [redacted] He was heard to repeat the following numbers: [redacted]

Frank Rosenthal, in telephonic conversation with John "The Greek" Prokos. Rosenthal asked Prokos how much does Dick Pearson (Miami Top Jewel Thief) owe you? The sum of $4,867. was mentioned.

Frank Rosenthal, in telephonic conversation with his attorney and tax consultant, [redacted] An appointment was set up for 2:00 P.M. March 30, 1965. Rosenthal told [redacted] that he was a bum and deserved no better treatment than he was getting. He said he was a sick man physically and broke financially. b6 b7C

Frank Rosenthal, in telephonic conversation with Lt. [redacted] Sheriff's Office, Miami. Rosenthal said he would meet him in 45 minutes.

On March 27, 1965, Frank Rosenthal, in telephonic conversation with Tony (Goebles) Ricci at the Thunderbird Motel, Miami Beach, Florida. Rosenthal said that Pearson owes $5,000 to a party and he would have Pearson call him, Ricci, later on in the day.

Frank Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with John "The Greek" Prokos. Rosenthal said that [redacted] tried to kill him last night and that Pearson would give him the money at the Athens Bar on Monday morning.

Frank Rosenthal, in telephonic conversation with Elliot Price, Seagull Hotel. Rosenthal discussed with Price in general terms the exhibition baseball games for the weekend and asked Price what games he was playing.

Rosenthal received an incoming call, apparently from Gil (probably Gil Beckley). Rosenthal asked who hit Martie (probably Martie Kane), the locals, in the form of a question. The answer to this question was probably yes and Rosenthal indicated that he would go over and try to straighten things out. It is noted that this is the raid by Internal Revenue Service, Miami, of Morton Kane.

Rosenthal further instructed Green to give Elliot Price $1,090 and collect from him $225 for the schedules.

On 4/28/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with [redacted] (LNU) at Dino's Shirt Wear, Miami Beach. He related that a friend of his, GIL BECKLEY, wanted to get some shirts and could he [redacted] come over to his house tomorrow night.

On 4/29/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. He inquired as to how many calls #3 (JOHN PROKOS) had made to Norfolk. He was heard to repeat the number 11.

b6
b7C

On 5/2/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with "MUTT" (MORTON KAUFMAN, handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service). ROSENTHAL made inquiry as to the current prices on the baseball games for this date.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with MARTY (MORTON KANE). Evidently KANE made inquiry as to the point spread in the Dodger baseball game and ROSENTHAL related that that was a good price.

On 5/3/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with [redacted] ROSENTHAL stated that he had just received a subpoena for a trial in Los Angeles. Evidently [redacted] answered that he had also just received a subpoena. ROSENTHAL said that he would see [redacted] at the Seagull Solarium in a short while.

On 5/4/65, ROSENTHAL and GIL BECKLEY engaged in a lengthy conversation. BECKLEY inquired as to when ROSENTHAL was going to the coast and told him, ROSENTHAL, "to contact [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] thought that you might get into some kind of trouble with that."

BECKLEY said that [redacted] had read the whole thing on that guy (KATZ) you're going out there about and your (ROSENTHAL) name was not mentioned.

BECKLEY continued, stating "I think they are calling you out there to see if he (KATZ) ever calls you."

ROSENTHAL stated "they will get an answer, the answer is No. I don't know the (obscene) and I am not concerned over it, you know, just curious."

ROSENTHAL related to BECKLEY that "the kid [redacted] [redacted] I talked to out west told me this is a test case for the government. They want to find out whether or not they can make a case with a player wagering out of state. Naturally they will have to produce the person that he wagered with. That's why the kid [redacted] down her got subpoenaed."

ROSENTHAL said "this is a U. S. Government test case - the first of its kind. It sounds sensible because he, (KATZ) was indicted for wagering across the state line." BECKLEY reflected "they are going to say to him (KATZ) that they were standing outside the booth and heard him (KATZ) make the call and make the bet - you know, that is a bunch of (obscene)."

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL stated "GIL, I also heard that the kid (KATZ) that got pinched out there -- there was a spiked mike put into the phone and the judge said that even though it is illegal, he, at this time, does not care to rule against it. You didn't know that, did you?"

BECKLEY replied "No."

ROSENTHAL stated "that's how they nailed him - they had a spiked mike into the phone. I guess they will beat it GIL." BECKLEY said "Yeah, I guess they will beat it but who needs to get fingered."

ROSENTHAL replied "No, they haven't been indicted yet, but they might try to indict them out there once they get them [redacted] out there. Yeah, this KATZ or whatever the (obscene) name is. He calls the kid [redacted] [redacted] out west for service, so I asked this kid to talk to KATZ and ask him if he might have any idea why I got a subpoena."

ROSENTHAL is currently driving a 1964 light blue Oldsmobile bearing 1965 Florida License 1W86111. This license is registered to [redacted] at the above address. b6 b7C

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

On April 8, 1965, Special Agents PRUE C. CLINKSCALES and TERENCE D. DINAN observed FRANK ROSENTHAL in the company of TONY SPILOTRO at the Thunderbird Motel, Miami Beach, Florida. On the same date, ROSENTHAL and SPILOTRO were observed at a major league baseball exhibition game at Miami Stadium.

On April 9, 1965, Special Agents CLINKSCALES and DINAN observed a late model Oldsmobile bearing 1965 Florida License 1W-100044, in front of ROSENTHAL's residence.

A check of appropriate records at the Dade County Auto Tag Agency reflected this license registered to MARTIN KANE, 1705 N. E. 116th Road, North Miami, Florida.

On April 9, 1965, MM T-1 advised that FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL is hanging around with GERALD CARUSIELLO, RICHARD PEARSON, and [redacted] These individuals are known as burglars and jewel thieves.

On April 13, 1965, Special Agents EDWARD A. ROMANOFF and [redacted] observed a late model Chevrolet bearing 1964 New York License 1Y640 parked in front of ROSENTHAL's residence.

On April 27, 1965, MM T-2 advised Special Agent [redacted] that [redacted] telephonically contacted "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL at 5:45 a.m. ROSENTHAL told her that he would see her at 9:00 a.m. b6 b7C

At 9:45 a.m., Special Agents [redacted] and WILLIAM F. GUILFOYLE observed [redacted] and [redacted] in the parking lot of the Morton Building, 1090 N. E. 79th Street. At 10:45 a.m., ROSENTHAL, [redacted] left Room 112 of the Morton Building and proceeded to ROSENTHAL's car.

b6
b7C

On April 29, 1965, Special Agent [redacted] interviewed HERMAN GORDON. GORDON related he was surprised at any relationship between [redacted] and FRANK ROSENTHAL. He did state that ROSENTHAL and DICK PEARSON had been friends for a long time, although he had no idea as to the nature of the meeting at the Morton Building on April 27, 1965. He indicated that there had been a considerable amount of activity during the past week concerning the DeLong ruby, but did not volunteer any information concerning the ruby.

FD-302 (Rev. 4-15-64)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date May 5, 1965

1.

FRANK ROSENTHAL, who resides at 2123 N. E. 122nd Street, was interviewed in a chance meeting outside his residence.

ROSENTHAL stated that he was now working at Multiple Sports News Service during the afternoon hours. This was necessitated by the fact that ALVIN WEISBERG, a former employee of the service, took off several weeks ago. ROSENTHAL stated WEISBERG owed a lot of money to local individuals, including SAM GREEN. He further reflected that he felt WEISBERG would no doubt bury his soul to the FBI as an informant.

Referral/Consult

[redacted]

ROSENTHAL commented that Multiple Sports is sending Baseball Journals across state lines, although he denied any individual outside of the State of Florida was receiving "line" information on a daily basis.

On May 1, 1965, Special Agents [redacted] [redacted] and WILLIAM P. KELLY observed [redacted] and ROSENTHAL conversing in front of ROSENTHAL's residence.

On May 2, 1965, Special Agents [redacted] and TERENCE D. DINAN spoke to ROSENTHAL in front of his residence. ROSENTHAL stated he did not wish to discuss the nature of the conference which was held on April 27, 1965, between [redacted] and himself. He was then asked if the matter related at all to the DeLong ruby. He stated that among other things, the ruby was discussed. He indicated that he does not have the ruby, nor does he have any knowledge of its whereabouts. In the event that knowledge did come to him concerning this matter, he would make serious efforts to determine whether or not he could convert the ruby into cash. If he could not do so, he stated that he would see to it that it was returned to the authorities in an anonymous fashion.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL
ANTI-RACKETEERING;
INTERSTATE GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

The following information was received from a confidential source who requested that his identity be protected:

On April 6, 1965, ROSENTHAL conducted a lengthy conversation with ELLIOT PRICE. ROSENTHAL wanted to borrow from PRICE $2,400.00. He explained that $400.00 was "juice" money for JOE NESLINE, $1,000.00 was for [redacted] and $1,000.00 for payments in Chicago. PRICE was agreeable to make the loan, although he asked ROSENTHAL if some of this money could be transferred on paper. ROSENTHAL said that the $1,000.00 to [redacted] could be given to [redacted] (probably [redacted] and the $1,000.00 for Chicago could be given to [redacted]

b6
b7C

Later in the conversation, PRICE said that he could get the $2,400.00 from his (PRICE's) account with "The Greek" (JOHN PROKOS). PRICE said that his present "bottom" with "The Greek" was $3,100.00. PRICE also indicated that he was leaving for Boston on Sunday.

PRICE and ROSENTHAL continued their conversation and ROSENTHAL complained that [redacted] was giving out the "Line" early, and was hurting the business of Multiple Sports. The two agreed that [redacted] will call in at 11:15 from now on for the "line." ROSENTHAL said that although he could get personal favors from PRICE, when it comes to business dealings, ROSENTHAL is just another "small timer" in dealing with PRICE's organization. PRICE indicated he does not have the power that ROSENTHAL thinks he does, and cited MARTY KANE as an example of someone that could wheel power. It was mentioned that KANE could have handled the $5,000.00 on the Los Angeles-Cleveland Exhibition Baseball Game, and he did handle $2,000.00 for [redacted]

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

On April 7, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. This entailed general conversation, and he repeated the fact that the baseball books from the coast had arrived that day.

ROSENTHAL was also advised by Multiple Sports that NATTIE MILLER wanted five baseball books, and they were to be delivered to City News, Washington, D. C.

On April 8, 1965, TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago jewel thief, placed two long distance calls to Chicago telephone numbers 442-9791 and 453-9181. On both of these calls, he attempted to locate DICKIE (probably RICHARD PEARSON) who presently owed money in the Miami area, and had not been seen in that area for a week.

On April 8, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with CHRIS PROKOS. He indicated to PROKOS that DICK (PEARSON) got into [redacted] real good for the National Football League football championship game, but at the end of the season, he owed [redacted] between ten and fifteen big ones.

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL and ELLIOT PRICE were engaged in a lengthy conversation. The substance of this conversation was that at the present time, PRICE is in a "combine" involving the "head" JERRY (probably JERRY ZAROWITZ) and himself. PRICE told ROSENTHAL that JERRY did not pass on the contract of $200.00 a week for MUTT (MORTON KAUFMAN, the present handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service.) ROSENTHAL could not understand this and told PRICE that the "service" could not bear this $200.00 a week. ROSENTHAL indicated to PRICE that if the contract was not approved, he was certain that MUTT would go to [redacted] (probably [redacted] [redacted] in Las Vegas). ROSENTHAL said that if JERRY finds this out he would probably pay $500.00 to stop it.

ROSENTHAL and PRICE continued their conversation, talking about a "combine" that existed in 1963. ROSENTHAL indicated that in this combine NESLINE controlled 40% of the total interest and PRICE, JERRY, and others controlled the other 60%. ROSENTHAL said that he owned 25% of NESLINE's interest. ROSENTHAL complained that when he left this "office" he was minus, and forced to borrow money from NESLINE in order to pay for his attorney fees, bond and fine in North Carolina.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with the Industrial Research Company, Middleton, Wisconsin, telephone number 836-5705. ROSENTHAL indicated to the other party that he was Mr. KANE from Miami, Florida, and needed some bulk paper. He inquired as to the price, and ROSENTHAL repeated a price of $140.00 a thousand. He then asked for a rate for 10,000 sheets, and was heard repeating the figure of $135.00. He instructed the party to send 10,000 sheets to MARTIN KANE, 1705 N. E. 116th Road, Apartment #10, North Miami, Florida.

ROSENTHAL then telephonically contacted MARTIN KANE. He informed KANE that he had ordered the paper, and it would be shipped tomorrow, and another load on Tuesday. Evidently, KANE was upset with this fact, and ROSENTHAL said that he would call tomorrow and change the addressee.

ROSENTHAL then telephonically contacted ELLIOT PRICE at the Sea Gull Hotel, and told him that he had just ordered some flash paper. He inquired if PRICE needed any paper.

On April 10, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with TONY GOEBLES (ANTHONY RICCI).

ROSENTHAL asked if he had heard from DICK (PEARSON). ROSENTHAL said that he had heard from [redacted] that he would be gone for another month. It was indicated that GOEBLES intended to take PEARSON's car as collateral on money that PEARSON owed him. b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL received a telephone call from NATTIE (NATHAN MILLER).

ROSENTHAL informed NATTIE that he had seen [redacted] yesterday, and took NATTIE's money for the "service" from him. He told NATTIE to settle up with [redacted] ROSENTHAL asked about NATTIE's helper and the name [redacted] was then mentioned by ROSENTHAL.

On April 11, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with an unknown male and indicated that ELLIOTT PRICE had returned to Boston during the afternoon of this date.

b6
b7C

On April 12, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. He requested him to inform [redacted] that he should call in daily at 10:30 a.m. as the "line" would be given out to the customers at 11:00 a.m.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with "POSSUM" (JOSEPH NESLINE) and informed him that he would be over at the house in one hour.

On April 13, 1965, ROSENTHAL instructed Multiple Sports News Service that "Cousin" (ANGEL KAPLAN Sports Service) and Zero 7 (J. K. Sports Journal) would call in at 10:55 a.m. for the "line."

On April 14, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS. ROSENTHAL inquired as to ELLIOTT's office number up there. He repeated the number 442-6999.

ROSENTHAL, in conversation with Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, Miami, requested that his service at Multiple Sports News Service be changed from a three-line rotary to a two-line rotary, and a private number.

On April 15, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with JOE "POSSUM" NESLINE. ROSENTHAL explained that ALVIN WEISBERG, an employee of Multiple Sports News Service, had left town last night due to the fact that he owed a lot of money. ROSENTHAL stated that "if he ever got hold of him he would break every bone in his body."

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with [redacted] Los Angeles, California, who is the [redacted] [redacted] informed [redacted] that he had a prior arrangement with [redacted] (J. K. Sports Journal) and could not give out the "line" to anyone else in the Los Angeles area.

ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with [redacted] related his conversation with [redacted] to [redacted] and asked [redacted] if he provided the "over-under line." ROSENTHAL said that MARTY KANEin Miami pays an additional $5.00 a week for this service. It is noted that "over and under" merely describes a line that indicates the total number of runs between two baseball teams in a given game.

b6
b7C

On April 16, 1965, ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with [redacted] Miami jewel thief, discussed the robbery at the Sterling Hotel, Miami Beach, and ROSENTHAL expressed his admiration for this "score." ROSENTHAL stated his concern to [redacted] about the fact that "the federals" know that PEARSON owes money to the local bookmaker, JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS.

On April 18, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with [redacted] ROSENTHAL requested a rundown, and asked, "Where did you get the changes, from the curtain (JERRY ZAROWITZ)?"

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with JOE GERACI. ROSENTHAL informed this individual, who is evidently from Ohio, that Multiple Sports News Service cannot give "service" over the state line. He asked this GERACI if he knew [redacted] in Erie, Ohio, or [redacted] in Youngstown, Ohio. ROSENTHAL stated that he would send this individual a letter, and maybe they could work something out.

ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with ANTHONY (TONY) RICCI, inquired if he had heard from PEARSON. ROSENTHAL said that he had just talked to his bondsman, [redacted] and he stated that PEARSON has a trial in West Palm Beach on Tuesday. ROSENTHAL reflected he hoped that PEARSON would get what was coming to him.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

On April 19, 1965, ROSENTHAL, in telephonic conversation with JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS, inquired if PROKOS was going to call ELLIOT PRICE this morning. Evidently, PROKOS was going to call, as "LEFTY" said he did not make the call himself.

On April 20, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with SAM GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service). ROSENTHAL was informed that the new private number at Multiple Sports News Service was 754-6321.

On April 22, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic contact with JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS. ROSENTHAL stated that he is out of his mind paying $200.00 "juice" money asweek for PEARSON's debts. It is noted that RICHARD PEARSON is a top Miami jewel thief presently out of the Miami area due to debts he owes to a local bookmaker, JOHN PROKOS, and a Miami shylock, TONY RICCI.

On April 24, 1965, ROSENTHAL and JOSEPH NESLINE were in general discussion. NESLINE related to ROSENTHAL that he wanted to place a bet on the Los Angeles Angels-New York Yankees baseball game being played on this date. NESLINE wanted to lay $3,000.00 against $2,000.00 in favor of the Yankees. ROSENTHAL placed this bet with a local bookmaker, [redacted] Also Known As [redacted]

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. He told an employee that b6
"The Greek" will pick up fifty May Baseball Journals tonight. b7C

On April 25, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with [redacted] Miami top jewel thief. ROSENTHAL reflected that he had lost his driver's license for one month due to the excessive amount of points compiled against his name. He said that he had a friend check the records at the Police Department, and found his record to be missing. He also complained to [redacted] about the trouble that DICK PEARSON had caused him and commented to [redacted] that he had been in contact with the "aunt" several days ago. It is noted that the "aunt" is TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago jewel thief.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

On April 26, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS. He instructed PROKOS to keep track of all long distance calls he made to Norfolk.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with MORTON KANE, bookmaker and associate of GIL BECKLEY. In answer to an inquiry made by KANE, ROSENTHAL reflected that [redacted] (Phonetic) called down from Chicago with the over-under runs "line." ROSENTHAL said that there is no set time when [redacted] calls.

On April 27, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with [redacted] ROSENTHAL stated that he would meet her at 9:00 a.m. at his office in the Morton Building. It is noted that subsequent investigation reflected that also at this meeting was [redacted] It is presumed that this group discussed the present status of the DeLong ruby.

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with an employee at Multiple Sports News Service. He instructed SAM GREEN to call "The Greek" (JOHN PROKOS), [redacted] [redacted] and KENNY (KEN HANNA) with the pitching changes.

ROSENTHAL was again in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. He inquired as to why NATTIE MILLER had called and what he wanted. He was heard to repeat, "He is laying low for what -- the Grand Jury?" ROSENTHAL requested that they send out MILLER's books right away.

On April 28, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) at Dino's Shirt Wear, Miami Beach. He related that a friend of his, GIL BECKLEY, wanted to get some shirts, and could he, [redacted] come over to his house tomorrow night.

On April 29, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. He inquired as to how many calls #3 (JOHN PROKOS) had made to Norfolk. He was heard to repeat the number eleven.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

On May 2, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with "MUTT" (MORTON KAUFMAN, handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service). ROSENTHAL made inquiry as to the current prices on the baseball games for this date.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with MARTY (MORTON KANE). Evidently, KANE made inquiry as to the point spread in the Dodger baseball game, and ROSENTHAL related that that was a good price.

On May 3, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with [redacted] ROSENTHAL stated that he had just received a subpoena for a trial in Los Angeles. Evidently, [redacted] answered that he had also just received a subpoena. ROSENTHAL said that he would see [redacted] at the Sea Gull Solarium in a short while.

b6
b7C

On May 4, 1965, ROSENTHAL and GIL BECKLEY engaged in a lengthy conversation. BECKLEY inquired as to when ROSENTHAL was going to the coast and told him, ROSENTHAL, "to contact [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] thought that you might get into some kind of trouble with that."

BECKLEY said that [redacted] had read the whole thing on that guy (KATZ) you are going out there about, and your (ROSENTHAL's) name was not mentioned.

BECKLEY continued, stating, "I think they are calling you out there to see if he (KATZ) ever calls you."

ROSENTHAL stated, "They will get an answer, the answer is No. I do not know the (obscene) and I am not concerned over it, you know, just curious."

ROSENTHAL related to BECKLEY that "the kid [redacted] I talked to out west told me this is a test case for the Government. They want to find out whether or not they can make a case with a player wagering out of state. Naturally they will have to produce the person that he wagered with. That's why the kid [redacted] down here got subpoenaed."

ROSENTHAL said, "This is a United States Government test case - the first of its kind. It sounds sensible because he (KATZ) was indicted for wagering across the state line." BECKLEY reflected, "They are going to say to him (KATZ) that they were standing outside the booth and heard him (KATZ) make the call and make the bet - you know, that is a bunch of (obscene)."

ROSENTHAL stated, "GIL, I also heard that the kid (KATZ) that got pinched out there -- there was a spiked mike put into the phone and the judge said that even though it is illegal he, at this time, does not care to rule against it. You did not know that, did you?"

BECKLEY replied, "No." b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL stated, "That's how they nailed him - they had a spiked mike into the phone. I guess they will beat it, GIL." BECKLEY said, "Yes, I guess they will beat it, but who needs to get fingered."

ROSENTHAL replied, "No, they have not been indicted yet, but they might try to indict them out there once they get them [redacted] out there. Yes, this KATZ or whatever the (obscene) name is. He calls the kid [redacted] out west for servide, so I asked this kid to talk to KATZ and ask him if he might have any idea why I got a subpoena."

He said it was ridiculous to put out a "line" so that he could bet on this false information. He indicated that only one individual on this particular date would be acquainted with the bets he had made on baseball games. He indicated that MICKEY ZION was the name of this individual and he would call him in order to clarify this matter. BECKLEY appeared to be sympathetic with ROSENTHAL in this matter and ROSENTHAL told BECKLEY that this was very common among the gambling element in Miami. He told BECKLEY that such a rumor could wreck his business.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic contact with JOHN "THE GREEK" PROKOS. They discussed the same matter as mentioned above with GIL BECKLEY.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic contact with attorney [redacted] ROSENTHAL inquired as to his Constitutional rights in a federal trial in court. He told [redacted] that he had been subpoenaed to a trial, CHARLES KATZ vs. the United States, to commence on 5/17/65 in Los Angeles. ROSENTHAL was heard to mention that he would take the 5th Amendment on any questions that did not directly concern his personal history. He further indicated that any questions concerning his business, associates or former activities would not be answered and he would invoke the 5th Amendment.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

RE: FRANK LANG ROSENTHAL
ANTI-RACKETEERING

A microphone surveillance has been in operation at 2123 Northeast 122nd Street, North Miami, Florida, since September 10, 1964. This is the residence of Frank Lang Rosenthal, who was convicted in 1963 of "fixing" a basketball game between West Virginia University and New York University at Charlotte, North Carolina, in 1960. Rosenthal operates as a sports consultant and handicapper for the Multiple Sports News Service of Miami, Florida.

During the past six-month period, this source has provided valuable intelligence information regarding organized illegal gambling. It has revealed Rosenthal's contacts with many nationally prominent gambling figures.

Unless you instruct to the contrary, this microphone surveillance will be continued for an additional six months.

SUBJECT: FRANK LANG ROSENTHAL
ANTI-RACKETEERING

This is a recommendation that authority of the Attorney General be requested to continue the microphone surveillance (misur) at the subject's residence in North Miami, Florida. Our coverage was established at this location in September, 1964.

Rosenthal has been selected for intensified investigative attention in connection with our probe of organized illegal gambling. He is one of the 35 individuals considered to be top sports gamblers in the country. To meet the Bureau's responsibilities with respect to the Federal antigambling statutes within our jurisdiction, it is necessary to develop comprehensive information regarding all phases of organized gambling, including sources for point spreads, national layoff centers, and identify personalities engaged in the "fixing" of athletic contests and horse racing.

Rosenthal operates under the guise of an employee of Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida, as a sports consultant and handicapper. Our coverage of him has revealed his connections with many nationally prominent gambling figures.

The following is a summary of information received from MM 972-C* for the period of 5/13 - 5/23/65:

On 5/13/65, ROSENTHAL and [redacted] were in conversation. She commented that JOE NESLINE was arrested on this date in Las Vegas and CHARLIE TOURINE was arrested in New York. She was not certain of the charges against the two individuals but said it had something to do with interstate gambling. She also stated there might be 15 or 16 other individuals involved.

false "line" in order to further his own betting activities. It would be assumed from the conversation that PROKOS was in agreement with ROSENTHAL that this was just a smear campaign by ZION and ROSENTHAL reiterated that there was no truth to these charges.

On 5/14/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with AUSA [redacted] Los Angeles, California. ROSENTHAL tried to convince [redacted] that in reference to the CHARLES KATZ trial in which he was subpoenaed, he did not know the subject. He further stated that he was under indictment and thought this would be grounds for dismissal as he understood that ELLIOT PRICE was in the same situation and had been dismissed as a Government witness.

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with [redacted] [redacted] USM's Office, Miami. He stated to [redacted] that he understood that he had been indicted in a gambling case in Washington, D.C., and wanted them to know that he was in the Miami area and could be served at any time. He stated that he was calling on the advice of his lawyer, [redacted]

[redacted] telephonically advised SAM GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service) that she had just talked with [redacted] and that [redacted] was not the one indicted on gambling charges but it was one [redacted]

ROSENTHAL telephonically contacted MICKEY ZION and placed several bets on major league baseball games.

STANLEY GREEN and ROSENTHAL engaged in a lengthy conversation. GREEN reflected that he has been getting the starting pitchers for major league baseball games from [redacted] around 4:45 P. M. daily. He said that he then forwards this information to "MUTT" (MORTON KAUFMAN). He said with this arrangement, the next day's "line" is all ready at 7:00 P. M. He stated also that Number 4 (ELLIOT PRICE's office, Boston, Massachusetts) has been helpful in furnishing information from the Boston, Chicago, New York and Baltimore newspapers. He told ROSENTHAL that Number 4 had been calling in around 8:45 to 9:00 A. M. daily.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with TONY SPILOTRO (Chicago jewel thief). ROSENTHAL commented about the bets he had been making the past several days and stated that he had been making a little bit of money.

ROSENTHAL telephonically contacted TONY GOEBELS (TONY RICCI). He discussed the value of RICHARD PEARSON's boat. He estimated that its present value would be around $25,000.00. ROSENTHAL said that [redacted] [redacted] had come home from Pittsburgh and he was sure that PEARSON would be home shortly.

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL in conversation with MARTY SKLAROFF. They discussed different bets made by customers of GIL BECKLEY. In reference to these, they named [redacted] and GIL. SKLAROFF said that he was disgusted with GIL BECKLEY inasmuch as he wants you to work for nothing and do all sorts of things for him. He said the only reason that he was working was as a favor to MARTY KANE. SKLAROFF said that BECKLEY checks the figures on a daily basis and usually comes up with some discrepancy. SKLAROFF attributed this to the fact that BECKLEY has been drinking as of late and does not have his mind on his business. ROSENTHAL further commented that BECKLEY is the worst in the business and is known as a hard man to deal with.

On 5/15/65, ROSENTHAL telephonically contacted MICKEY ZION. He asked ZION how everyone was betting on today's baseball games and mentioned the name of RUBY (possibly RUBY LAZURAS).

ROSENTHAL telephonically contact an unknown person. He bet $300.00 on Native Charger to win the preakness and bet $100.00 on Tom Rolf to win in the same race.

On 5/16/65, ROSENTHAL was telephonically contacted by ELLIOT PRICE, Boston, Massachusetts. ROSENTHAL informed PRICE that he was going to Los Angeles on the 18th and would be a hostile witness. It was also mentioned that [redacted] (LNU) was presently in New York City.

On 5/17/65, ROSENTHAL telephonically contacted Multipls Sports News Service. He left a message that if TONY SPILOTRO called this afternoon, to tell him that he would be in Chicago at 9:00 P. M. on this date and would be staying at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles, California.

b6
b7C

On 5/19/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. ROSENTHAL repeated "I am supposed to call ANGEL - KAPLAN and [redacted] OK."

ROSENTHAL in telephonic contact with TONY SPILOTRO in Chicago, Illinois. He requested SPILOTRO to get a hold of [redacted] (phonetic) and ask him about the money he owes ROSENTHAL.

On 5/20/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. It was indicated from the conversation that a deputy sheriff had come to the office of Multipls Sports News Service to serve papers and take furniture to satisfy a lien of $495.00 against ALVIN WEISBERG (a former employee of the Service). ROSENTHAL indicated that he would talk to Detective [redacted] of the Sheriff's Office and everything would be okay.

ROSENTHAL was telephonically contacted by RICHARD PEARSON (Miami Top Jewel Thief). ROSENTHAL told PEARSON that he was not worried about the amount of money that PEARSON owed in the Miami area but he thought that the principle of the whole thing was very much against PEARSON's normal conduct.

ROSENTHAL said that he did not wish to take sides in PEARSON's money dispute with TONY RICCI and JOHN PROKOS. ROSENTHAL warned PEARSON that his present attitude is very bad and will eventually get him in serious trouble. ROSENTHAL said that he was not worried about any problem PEARSON had with JOE MEROLA.

ROSENTHAL gave PEARSON the number whereby he could reach TONY RICCI and told PEARSON that RICCI was a good friend of his and he will have to convince RICCI about this money matter.

On 5/21/65, ROSENTHAL telephonically contacted [redacted] Attorney at Law. He talked with [redacted] about the recent lien and attachment regarding Multiple Sports News Service and ALVIN WEISBERG. It is assumed that his lawyer told him that the deputy could not do this against ROSENTHAL or SAM GREEN.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic contact with the long distance operator in Buffalo, New York. He inquired as to the number for Mr. [redacted] He then placed a call to this number and apparently the party would not be in until 3:00 P. M.

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL was contacted telephonically by [redacted] (LNU). It was indicated that [redacted] is a partner of [redacted] (LNU) and there was some problem over the control of a certain location in Northside Chicago, Illinois.

ROSENTHAL and [redacted] (Miami Top Jewel Thief) engaged in conversation. [redacted] then telephonically contacted Mr. [redacted] and made inquiry as to the instructions on shipping explosives. He was heard to repeat that he must obtain a certificate from Lieutenant [redacted] of the Fire Marshal's Office (FR 7-7721). He inquired of [redacted] about Composition (C) Dynamite. [redacted] gave [redacted] a telephone number of 758-1912 where he could be reached. This number is listed to Dade Import and Export Company.

ROSENTHAL then telephonically contacted [redacted] (LNU), Dade Import and Export Company, in reference to the above conversation with Mr. [redacted] He related that [redacted] was cute on the telephone with [redacted] and would probably call the FBI. Further in the conversation, ROSENTHAL changed his mind regarding [redacted] and told [redacted] to follow through with the original plan.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic contact with [redacted] He advised [redacted] that he had a message for him to call [redacted]

On 5/22/65, ROSENTHAL was telephonically contacted by JERRY ZAROWITZ, Las Vegas, Nevada. It was surmised from this conversation that ZAROWITZ wanted ROSENTHAL to make reservations for two friends of ZAROWITZ who were coming to Chicago from Las Vegas. Their names were [redacted] and [redacted] These reservations would be for Monday and Tuesday night. ROSENTHAL commented to ZAROWITZ about the arrest of [redacted] in Canada and stated that because of this arrest "The Greek" was going to change his office numbers.

ROSENTHAL placed a long distance call to 312-549-8537 but was told by the operator that this number was busy. b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL attempted to place a long distance call to [redacted] at the Continental Hotel, Chicago, Illinois. He was presumably informed that this individual does not work at the hotel any longer.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with RICHARD GORMAN, Chicago, Illinois. ROSENTHAL inquired as to when GORMAN was coming to Miami and was heard to repeat, "Next week, huh?"

ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago, Illinois. It was surmised that SPILOTRO was having trouble in obtaining reservations for the two friends of ZAROWITZ, namely [redacted] and [redacted]

On 5/23/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with [redacted] Chicago, Illinois. ROSENTHAL commented to [redacted] about [redacted] a new restaurant and said that he would loan any money he could to [redacted] to just "give a ring."

ROSENTHAL in telephonic contact with TONY SPILOTRO. ROSENTHAL complained about losing $800.00 on bets that he had placed regarding major league baseball games.

ReBulet to Miami, 1/14/65 and Miami airtel to Bureau, 4/6/65.

The following is a summary of information received from MM 972-C* for the period 4/6-12/65:

On 4/6/65, ROSENTHAL conducted a lengthy conversation with ELLIOTT PRICE. ROSENTHAL wanted to borrow from PRICE $2400. He explained that $400 was juice money for JOE NESLINE, $1,000 for [redacted] and $1,000 for payments in Chicago. PRICE was agreeable to make the loan although he asked ROSENTHAL if some of this money could be transferred on paper. ROSENTHAL said that the $1,000 to [redacted] could be given to [redacted] (probably [redacted] and the $1,000 for Chicago could be given to [redacted]

b6
b7C

Later in the conversation PRICE said that he could get the $2,400 from his (PRICE's) account with "The Greek" (JOHN PROKOS). PRICE said that his present "bottom" with "The Greek" was $3,100. PRICE also indicated that he was leaving for Boston on Sunday.

PRICE and ROSENTHAL continued their conversation and ROSENTHAL complains that [redacted] was giving out the "line" early and was hurting the business of Multiple Sports. The two agreed that [redacted] will call in at 11:15 from now on for the "line." ROSENTHAL said that although he could get personal favors from PRICE, when it comes to business dealings ROSENTHAL is just another "small timer" in dealing with PRICE's organization. PRICE indicated that he does not have the power that ROSENTHAL thinks he does and cited MARTY KANE as an example of someone that could wheel power. It was mentioned that KANE could have handled the $5,000 on the Los Angeles-Cleveland Exhibition Baseball Game and he did handle $2,000 for [redacted]

On 4/7/65, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. This entailed general conversation and he repeated the fact that the baseball books from the coast had arrived today. b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL was also advised by Multiple Sports that NATTIE MILLER wanted five baseball books and they were to be delivered to City News, Washington, D. C.

On 4/8/65, TONY SPILOTRO (Chicago jewel thief) placed two long distance calls to Chicago telephone numbers 442-9791 and 453-9181. On both of these calls he attempted to locate DICKIE (probably RICHARD PEARSON) who presently owed money in the Miami area and has not been seen in this area for one week.

On 4/8/65, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with CHRIS PROKOS. He indicated to PROKOS that DICK (PEARSON) got into [redacted] real good for the NFL football championship game but at the end of the season he owed [redacted] between ten and fifteen big ones.

ROSENTHAL and ELLIOTT PRICE were engaged in a lengthy conversation. The substance of this conversation was that at the present time PRICE is in a "combine" involving the "head" JERRY (probably JERRY ZAROWITZ) and himself. PRICE told ROSENTHAL that JERRY did not pass on the contract of $200 a week for MUTT (MORTON KAUFMAN, the present handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service. ROSENTHAL could not understand this and told PRICE that the "service" could not bear this $200 a week. ROSENTHAL indicated to PRICE that if the contract was not approved he was certain that MUTT would go to [redacted] (probably [redacted] in Las Vegas). ROSENTHAL said that if JERRY finds this out he would probably pay $500 to stop it.

ROSENTHAL and PRICE continued their conversation, talking about a "combine" that existed in 1963. ROSENTHAL indicated that in this combine NESLINE controlled 40% of the total interest and PRICE, JERRY and others controlled the other 60%. ROSENTHAL said that he held 25% of NESLINE's interest. ROSENTHAL complained that when he left this "office" he was minus and forced to borrow money from NESLINE in order to pay for his attorney fees, bond and fine in North Carolina.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with the Industrial Research Company, Middleton, Wisconsin, telephone number 836-5705. ROSENTHAL indicated to the other party that he was Mr. KANE from Miami, Florida and needed some bulk paper. He inquired as to the price and ROSENTHAL repeated a price of $140 a thousand. He then asked for a rate for 10,000 sheets and was heard repeating the figure of $135. He instructed the party to send 10,000 sheets to MARTIN KANE, 1705 N. E. 116th Road, Apartment #10, North Miami, Florida.

ROSENTHAL then telephonically contacted MARTIN KANE. He informed KANE that he had ordered the paper and it would be shipped tomorrow and another load on Tuesday. Evidently KANE was upset with this fact and ROSENTHAL said that he would call tomorrow and change the addressee.

ROSENTHAL then telephonically contacted ELLIOTT PRICE at the Seagull Hotel and told him that he had just ordered some flash paper. He inquired if PRICE needed any paper.

On 4/10/65, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with TONY GOEBLES (ANTHONY RICCI).

ROSENTHAL asked if he had heard from DICK (PEARSON). ROSENTHAL said that he had heard from PEARSON [redacted] that he would be gone for another month. It was indicated that GOEBLES intended to take PEARSON's car as collateral on money that PEARSON owed him.

ROSENTHAL received a telephone call from NATTIE (NATHAN MILLER).

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL informed NATTIE that he had seen [redacted] [redacted] yesterday and took NATTIE's money for the "service" from him. He told NATTIE to settle up with [redacted] ROSENTHAL asked about NATTIE's helper and the name [redacted] was then mentioned by ROSENTHAL.

On 4/11/65, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with an unknown male and indicated that ELLIOT PRICE had returned to Boston during the afternoon of this date.

On 4/12/65, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. He requested him to inform [redacted] that he should call in daily at 10:30 a.m. as the "line" would be given out to the customers at 11:00 a.m.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with "POSSUM" (JOSEPH NESLINE) and informed him that he would be over at the house in one hour.

It is noted that RICHARD PEARSON is a top Miami jewel thief presently out of the Miami area due to debts he owes to a local bookmaker, JOHN PROKOS, and a Miami shylock, TONY RICCI.

On 4/24/65, ROSENTHAL and JOSEPH NESLINE were in general discussion. NESLINE related to ROSENTHAL that he wanted to place a bet on the Los Angeles Angels-New York Yankees baseball game being played on this date. NESLINE wanted to lay $3,000 against $2,000 in favor of the Yankees. ROSENTHAL placed this bet with a local bookmaker, [redacted]

On June 4, 1965, [redacted] Traffic Division, States Attorney's Office, Miami, reflected that FRANK ROSENTHAL's case would be heard on June 7, 1965, at 3:30 PM in the courtroom of Judge FREDERICK N. BARAD.

FD-302 (Rev. 4-15-64)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1

Date June 7, 1965

Officer [redacted] Sheriff's Office, Miami, Florida, was interviewed at the Miami International Airport.

[redacted] related that he is assigned to the International Airport and has worked at the airport for the past three years.

He reflected that on May 21, 1965, he was on duty and had occasion during his working day to stop a light blue Oldsmobile. [redacted] identified a picture of FRANK ROSENTHAL as the individual driving this car. He stated that the car was originally stopped for its failure to yield right of way to a pedestrian. b6 b7C

He stated that after pulling the car over to the curb he asked ROSENTHAL for a driver's license, and ROSENTHAL explained to him that he did not have it on his person. ROSENTHAL at this time pleaded with [redacted] for him to take no action on this matter and told the officer that he was connected with important people in the Sheriff's Department plus other local officials. [redacted] said that he verbally warned ROSENTHAL about the yielding to a pedestrian violation although he did give him a ticket to appear in court on June 7, 1965, at 3:30 PM in order to show that he has a driver's license.

He further stated that the court date is set for Monday, June 7, and at this time he has no idea who the judge will be. He stated that the case is put on the court calendar and there is no way to ascertain who will hear the case. [redacted] stated that it was his opinion that ROSENTHAL was probably well connected with authorities, and it is possible that someone higher than him could have the ticket canceled.

[redacted] stated that he wished to cooperate with the FBI in any way possible as he feels that individuals like ROSENTHAL are "real nobodies."

b6
b7C

On June 7, 1965, [redacted] Metropolitan Court, Dade County, Florida, made available a certified copy of the court's action regarding FRANK ROSENTHAL's ticket issued for "no valid State driver's license."

This copy reflected that the case had been adjudicated on June 4, 1965, before Judge ARTHUR MAGINNIS. The judge fined ROSENTHAL $25.

At New Orleans, Louisiana:

On April 9, 1965, MM T-4 advised SA REED W. JENSEN that [redacted] in Miami Beach, Florida, on [redacted] and [redacted] HERSHIE LAFF, well known Miami gambler. During the conversation LAFF mentioned that the "mob" in Chicago, Illinois, controls the Chicago Sports Service coming into Miami, Florida. He said that this service was apparently controlled locally by LEFTY ROSENTHAL, who is presently operating a gambling operation in Miami, Florida, called the Multiple Sports and News Service, 1090 N. E. 79th Street, Suite 112, Miami, Florida, phone PL4-0637. Source stated that he was given one of ROSENTHAL's business cards which showed FRANK L. ROSENTHAL and [redacted] as "Sport Consultants." HERSHIE complained [redacted] that the Chicago Sports Service coming in by telephone cost him $50 a week whether he wanted it or not. Source stated that although LAFF did not specifically say so, source got the impression that LAFF was forced to take this service whether he wanted it or not through fear. LAFF had also remarked that ROSENTHAL apparently publishes locally a printed sports schedule and sports line. LAFF believed that this was the identical information coming from the Chicago Sports Service but that ROSENTHAL makes minor changes in the line so that it does not appear that he is using information from the Chicago Sports Service.

b7D

At Middleton, Wisconsin:

The following investigation was conducted by SA ELDON J. MUELLER on May 3, 1965:

[redacted] Industrial Research Co., 2211 Parmenter Street, advised that sometime during the week of April 12, 1965, a man calling from Miami, Florida, requested to speak to [redacted] the Industrial Research Co. Thereafter, he informed he had previously purchased "flash" paper from [redacted] and requested that 5,000 sheets of "flash" paper be sent to him COD. He said he had previously purchased the paper at the rate of $130 for 1,000 sheets and, after checking with [redacted] [redacted] it was agreed that he could have the "flash" paper at this price. The individual requested the 5,000 sheets be sent to Mr. JESSE SKLAROFF, 1809 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida.

b6

[redacted] stated she could not remember if the individualshad said he was calling from Miami or Miami Beach, Florida, but she presumed he was, in fact, Mr. JESSE SKLAROFF.

[redacted] made available an envelope postmarked Miami, Florida, April 23, 1965, from U. S. Post Office, Miami, Florida, 33101, and a letter from Postmaster [redacted] dated April 23, 1965, in which letter [redacted] advised the Industrial Research Co. that eight COD parcels, addressed to JESSE SKLAROFF, 1809 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, had been received for collection, but Mr. SKLAROFF had informed that he had ordered no merchandise. The Postmaster stated that apparently someone had prankishly ordered material from the Industrial Research Co. The letter continued by stating that the parcels had been refused by Mr. SKLAROFF and were, therefore, being returned to the Industrial Research Co., Middleton, Wisconsin.

[redacted] said that, to date, the parcels have not been returned by postal authorities, and she requested to be advised as to the disposition of the parcels.

b6
b7C

[redacted] said that the only other company to whom she can recall sending "flash" paper in the Miami area was the Florida Fun Distributors, 693 West 26th Street, Hialeah, Florida. Under date of March 24, 1965, one gross of flash pads and one gross of condensed smoke were shipped to this concern.

At Minneapolis, Minnesota:

On May 4, 1965, MM T-5 advised that it was his belief that the "national line" existing in this country comes from "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL from Miami, Florida. Source stated that ROSENTHAL also publishes his own schedules and is known to be servicing gamblers and bookmakers on the East Coast from $50 - $100 per week for current "line" information.

At Los Angeles, California:

On [redacted] was observed entering the Federal Building in the company of [redacted] [redacted] proceeded to the courtroom of U. S. District Judge JESSE CURTIS.

b3

[redacted] emerged from the courtroom several minutes later and reflected that he had been [redacted] [redacted] and intended to immediately return to Miami, Florida.

At Chicago, Illinois:

FRANK ROSENTHAL arrived on Eastern Airlines Flight 72 at 9:00 PM, June 7, 1965. He was met by an individual who closely resembled ANTHONY JOHN SPILOTRO, also known as TONY. These two individuals left O'Hara Field in a 1965 light tan Oldsmobile which is registered to [redacted] b6 b7C

TELEPHONE CONTACTS

It has been previously reported that FRANK ROSENTHAL is a subscriber to non-published telephone number 758-5559-0.

Re: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

The following information was received from a confidential source who requested that his identity be protected:

On May 5, 1965, Rosenthal was in telephonic conversation with Sam Green (Multiple Sports News Service). Rosenthal stated that it was okay to send two books for the remainder of the season to [redacted] Account No. [redacted] Jacksonville, Florida.

b6
b7C

Rosenthal in telephonic contact with the following businesses:

Miami Dynamite Company
Austin Powder Company
Trager Powder Company.

He told each of these business concerns that he was Mr. Kerenski of the Dade Wholesale Import and Export Company, Miami. He said that he was inquiring if these various enterprises carried gelatin-type dynamite incendiary bombs and flares. His purported reason for this inquiry was to further his export business.

Rosenthal in telephonic contact with Charles Kaufman and placed several bets on Major League baseball games.

On May 6, 1965, Rosenthal in telephonic contact with Tony Spilotro, Chicago, Illinois. Their discussion was generally about gambling matters, and Rosenthal related that Tony Goebels (Anthony Ricci) wanted his money from Dick Pearson.

Sam Green and Rosenthal engaged in a conversation. Green related that [redacted] called at the "Service" and asked that his account number be changed in order that his partner would not know that he is betting as well as booking. His new account number is [redacted]

Green also mentioned that [redacted] called the office and is temporarily in Miami after he was [redacted] from [redacted] [redacted] told Green that he would go back to [redacted] as soon as possible and felt the situation would soon clear up. [redacted] according to Green, stated that if Green wanted to borrow any money, he certainly could and to pick up the money from [redacted] (probably [redacted].

b6
b7C

On May 7, 1965, Rosenthal and Tony Ricci engaged in a lengthy conversation. They discussed the debt Pearson owes Ricci. Ricci stated the balance of the debt is now $1200. Rosenthal told Ricci that he understood Pearson will not return to the Miami area and is going to secure [redacted] Pearson, according to Rosenthal, has sent for [redacted] and she is now in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Rosenthal said that Pearson is presently working for [redacted] and Joe Merola in Pittsburgh.

Ricci stated that he had talked to John "The Greek" Prokos about the money Pearson owed him, and he suggested to Prokos that he put pressure on [redacted]

Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with Mickey Zion. He placed several baseball wagers with Zion.

Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with unknown male. He discussed with this individual the loss of his driver's license and stated that he could get it back if he would spend $500 in order to get an injunction against the Florida Highway Patrol.

Rosenthal in telephonic contact with the office of Lieutenant [redacted] Sheriff's Office, Dade County. He indicated that he had some important information to relate to [redacted] and would call him on an outside phone at 3:45 PM.

b6
b7C

Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with [redacted] [redacted]. Rosenthal stated that he wold call the U. S. Marshal's Office about the money for their travel to Los Angeles.

On May 8, 1965, Rosenthal in telephonic contact with Charles Kaufman whereby he placed two bets on Major League baseball games.

On May 11, 1965, Rosenthal in telephonic contact with Gil Beckley. Rosenthal stated to Beckley that he had never put out a false "line" as long as he has been operating Multiple Sports News Service. He said it was ridiculous to put out a "line" sothat he could bet on this false information. He indicated that only one individual on this particular date would be acquainted with the bets he had made on baseball games. He indicated that Mickey Zion was the name of this individual and he wold call him in order to clarify this matter. Beckley appeared to be sympathetic with Rosenthal in this matter and Rosenthal told Beckley that this was very common among the gambling element in Miami. He told Beckley that such a rumor could wreck his business.

Rosenthal in telephonic contact with John "The Greek" Prokos. They discussed the same matter as mentioned above with Gil Beckley.

Rosenthal in telephonic contact with attorney [redacted] Rosenthal inquired as to his constitutional rights in a federal trial in court. He told [redacted] that he had been subpoenaed to a trial, Charles Katz vs. the United States, to commence on May 17, 1965, in Los Angeles. Rosenthal was heard to mention that he would take the 5th Amendment on any questions that did not directly concern his personal history. He further indicated that any questions concerning his business, associates or former activities would not be answered and he would invoke the 5th Amendment.

b6
b7C

[redacted]

Referral/Consult

On May 12, 1965, Rosenthal attempted to reach [redacted] Los Angeles, California.

b6
b7C

On May 13, 1965, Rosenthal and [redacted] were in conversation. She commented that Joe Nesline was arrested on this date in Las Vegas and Charlie Tourine was arrested in New York. She was not certain of the charges against the two individuals but said it had something to do with interstate gambling. She also stated there might be 15 or 16 other individuals involved.

Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with John Prokos. It was indicated from this conversation that Mickey Zion had accused Rosenthal of putting out a false "line" in order to further his own betting activities.

It would be assumed from the conversation that Prokos was in agreement with Rosenthal that this was just a smear campaign by Zion and Rosenthal reiterated that there was no truth to these charges.

On May 14, 1965, Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] Los Angeles, California. Rosenthal tried to convince [redacted] that in reference to the Charles Katz trial in which he was subpoenaed, he did not know the subject. He further stated that he was under indictment and thought this would be grounds for dismissal as he understood that Elliot Price was in the same situation and had been dismissed as a Government witness.

Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with [redacted] U. S. Marshal's Office, Miami. He stated to [redacted] that he understood that he had been indicted in a gambling case in Washington, D.C., and wanted them to know that he was in the Miami area and could be served at any time. He stated that he was calling on the advice of his lawyer, [redacted] [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] telephonically advised Sam Green (Multiple Sports News Service) that she had just talked with [redacted] and that [redacted] was not the one indicted on gambling charges but it was one [redacted]

Rosenthal telephonically contacted Mickey Zion and placed several bets on Major League baseball games.

Stanley Green and Rosenthal engaged in a lengthy conversation. Green reflected that he has been getting the starting pitchers for Major League baseball games from [redacted] around 4:45 PM daily.

He said that he then forwards this information to "Mutt" (Morton Kaufman). He said with this arrangement, the next day's "Line" is all ready at 7:00 PM. He stated also that Number 4 (Elliot Price's office, Boston, Massachusetts) has been helpful in furnishing information from the Boston, Chicago, New York and Baltimore newspapers. He told Rosenthal that Number 4 had been calling in around 8:45 to 9:00 AM daily.

Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with Tony Spilotro (Chicago jewel thief). Rosenthal commented about the bets he had been making the past several days and stated that he had been making a little bit of money.

Rosenthal telephonically contacted Tony Goebels (Tony Ricci). He discussed the value of Richard Pearson's boat. He estimated that its present value would be around $25,000. Rosenthal said that [redacted] had come home from Pittsburgh and he was sure that Pearson would be home shortly.

b6
b7C

Rosenthal in conversation with Marty Sklaroff. They discussed different bets made by customers of Gil Beckley. In reference to these, they named [redacted] and Gil. Sklaroff said that he was disgusted with Gil Beckley inasmuch as he wants you to work for nothing and do all sorts of things for him. He said the only reason that he was working was as a favor to Marty Kane. Sklaroff said that Beckley checks the figures on a daily basis andusually comes up with some discrepancy. Sklaroff attributed this to the fact that Beckley has been drinking as of late and does not have his mind on his business. Rosenthal further commented that Beckley is the worst in the business and is known as a hard man to deal with.

Re: Frank Lang "Lefty" Rosenthal

On May 15, 1965, Rosenthal telephonically contacted Mickey Zion. He asked Zion how everyone was betting on today's baseball games and mentioned the name of Ruby (possibly Ruby Lazarus).

Rosenthal telephonically contacted an unknown person. He bet $300 on Native Charger to win the Preakness and bet $100 on Tom Rolf to win in the same race.

On May 16, 1965, Rosenthal was telephonically contacted by Elliot Price, Boston, Massachusetts. Rosenthal informed Price that he was going to Los Angeles on the 18th and would be a hostile witness. It was also mentioned that [redacted] (LNU) was presently in New York City.

On May 17, 1965, Rosenthal telephonically contacted Multiple Sports News Service. He left a message that if Tony Spilotro called this afternoon, to tell him that he would be in Chicago at 9:00 PM on this date and would be staying at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles, California.

b6
b7C

On May 19, 1965, Rosenthal in telephonic conversation with Multiple Sports News Service. Rosenthal repeated "I am supposed to call Angel - Kaplan and [redacted] OK."

Rosenthal in telephonic contact with Tony Spilotro in Chicago, Illinois. He requested Spilotro to get a hold of [redacted] (phonetic) and ask him about the money he owes Rosenthal.

17. Remarks (By SAC):

FRANK ROSENTHAL continues to reside in the Miami area; however, has been making frequent trips to Chicago and in contact with jewel thieves. He is currently a sports handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service and a big-time gambler. It is noted in weekly airtels furnished to the Bureau this source furnishes information concerning the activities of not only Top Jewel Thieves but leading nation-wide gambling figures, as well as valuable information in the area of anti-racketeering. UACB, the source will be continued for an additional 90 days commencing 7/10/65 as it is felt that this source will be productive of information which could not be obtained in any other manner.

18. Recommendation by Assistant Director:
(If this surveillance involves cryptanalysis, include statement that decrypted material is or is not sufficiently important to continue decrypting.)

This matter was referred to the Attorney General by memorandum April 9, 1965, and he approved. Rosenthal operates as a sports consultant and handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida. He is receiving intensified investigative attention as one of the top sports gamblers in the country. This source has furnished valuable information regarding top jewel thieves; otherwise unobtainable information concerning Rosenthal's association with such nationally prominent gamblers as Joe Nesline and Gil Beckley and important data in the Anti-Racketeering area. It is recommended that this highly confidential source be continued.

LOCAL COURT ACTION

On June 7, 1965, [redacted] Metropolitan Court, Dade County, Florida, advised upon a check of appropriate records that FRANK ROSENTHAL's case which involved a complaint of driving with "No valid state driver's license" had been adjudicated on June 4, 1965 before Judge ARTHUR MAGINNIS. The fine imposed was $25.00.

On June 8, 1965, [redacted] Metro Court Prosecutor, telephonically advised that he was very surprised over the above result, although stated he had no control over this matter. [redacted] stated that he would discuss this case with his superior, State's Attorney [redacted]

On June 9, 1965, Special Agents WILLIAM F. HEIST and [redacted] conferred with Assistant State's Attorney [redacted] concerning the fact that ROSENTHAL had been driving with a suspended driver's license.

[redacted] requested Chief Metro Court Prosecutor [redacted] to contact the officer involved with the local driving charge so that a warrant could be immediately sworn out against ROSENTHAL. [redacted] suggested to [redacted] that he arrange the calendar so this case would appear b6 before Judge BARAD and have [redacted] arrange a pre-trial b7C conference in order that the Judge is well versed on all circumstances surrounding this case.

On July 13, 1965, it was ascertained that Chief Metro Court Prosecutor [redacted] was temporarily out of town and would return to the Miami area July 26, 1965.

On June 29, 1965, Major [redacted] Driver's License Division, Department of Public Safety, Florida Highway Patrol, Tallahassee, Florida, advised that he had received an urgent telegram from [redacted] Assistant State Attorney, Miami, to forward certified copies of the driving record for FRANK ROSENTHAL.

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

SAM "MEKIS" is probably identical with SAM MINKUS, a well-known sports handicapper in Chicago. MINKUS, prior to enactment of Federal gambling legislation, operated as sports service called National Publications. National Publications distributed sports schedules and furnished a betting line used principally for the printing of parlay cards. MINKUS is allegedly presently in the business of printing and distributing parlay cards in the Chicago area and is reported to be a "smart money" bettor.

The current Chicago Telephone Directory reflects that number 549-8537 is listed to St. Joseph's Hospital, 2900 North Lake Shore Drive.

Chicago telephone number RO 1-2300 is listed to the Black Angus Restaurant, 7127 North Western Avenue, Chicago.

RE: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL
ANTI-RACKETEERING;
INTERSTATE GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

The following information was received from a confidential source who requested that his identity be protected:

On June 9, 1965, JOSEPH NESLINE, [redacted] and [redacted] were in general discussion.

On June 10, 1965, [redacted] was in telephonic conversation with SAM GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service). [redacted] was heard to repeat the telephone number of [redacted] FRANK, in Chicago, Room 1208, telephone number 943-7200. b6 b7C

It is noted that FRANK ROSENTHAL was in Chicago, Illinois, from June 7 to June 18, 1965.

On June 18, 1965, [redacted] subject, was in conversation with STANLEY GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service). [redacted] indicated that [redacted] will be coming home this date on an Eastern Air Lines flight from Chicago, arriving at 3:30 P. M.

On June 19, 1965, ROSENTHAL and STANLEY GREEN were in a long conversation. The substance of this conversation was the discussion of some individuals now receiving service from Multiple Sports News Service. The following names and addresses were mentioned:

[redacted] (phonetic), [redacted]
Union, New Jersey;

[redacted] New York City;

b6
b7C

On June 19, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with GIL BECKLEY. ROSENTHAL related that he had been in Chicago and had just returned on Friday. He mentioned that the shirt maker was from [redacted] ROSENTHAL stated he makes good shirts but "he aint no good for money."

On June 23, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Triple A Letter Service, Miami. ROSENTHAL asked an individual at this business establishment if colored paper can be copied. ROSENTHAL said that he was advised by someone in California that certain paper cannot be copied. ROSENTHAL was then heard to relate that red paper with black printing would be the ideal combination. (It is noted that Triple A Letter Service is the printer for publications published by Multiple Sports News Service).

b6
b7C

On June 23, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with bookmaker MARTY KANE. ROSENTHAL inquired how [redacted] and you betting.

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with local bookmaker CHARLES KAUFMAN. ROSENTHAL placed several bets on major league baseball games.

On June 23, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with [redacted] (Miami Top Jewel Thief). ROSENTHAL stated that he will talk to 0 (probably TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago Jewel Thief) and relay the message from [redacted]

On June 29, 1965, ROSENTHAL and STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service) engaged in a lengthy conversation. GREEN advised ROSENTHAL that #4 (JOHN PROKOS, Miami bookmaker and oddsmaker) is calling before 9:15 A. M. and this is too early as MUTT (MORTON KAUFMAN, handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service) does not relay the "line" until 9:30 A. M. ROSENTHAL inquired if #4 is providing GREEN with accurate pitcher information. GREEN replied in the affirmative.

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL also inquired of GREEN if the procedure of having [redacted] (employee of Multiple Sports News Service), make the morning call to Baltimore is working out. ROSENTHAL cautions GREEN to avoid giving #800 in Baltimore obsolete information. GREEN reflected that [redacted] always calls him from the telephone booth before making the call to #800 in order to secure any late changes in the line of added pitchers.

GREEN related to ROSENTHAL that he had gotten $110.00 from KENNY (probably KEN HANNA, well-known Florida bookmaker) through "The Greek" (JOHN PROKOS).

ROSENTHAL was in telephone contact with JOSEPH NESLINE. Most of this conversation was inaudible and appeared to be in general social terms.

On June 30, 1965, ROSENTHAL and SIDNEY ROSENTHAL (no relation) engaged in a lengthy conversation. It appeared that SIDNEY ROSENTHAL was in the process of instituting a one-half million dollar law suit for deformation of character. This conversation was hard to interpret although it was ascertained that SIDNEY ROSENTHAL was trying to get the support of FRANK ROSENTHAL in this endeavor.

On June 30, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic contact with CHRIS PROKOS, brother of JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS. ROSENTHAL assured PROKOS that they will eventually get their money from DICK PEARSON, Miami Jewel Thief. ROSENTHAL stated that he had found out from [redacted] (Miami area criminal attorney) that RICHARD PEARSON had sent $2,500.00 to [redacted] (Miami Jewel Thief) for bond money which was supposed to go to ROSENTHAL if [redacted] did not use it. ROSENTHAL continued, stating that [redacted] RICHARD, had sold [redacted] boat and paid off a debt owed by PEARSON to TONY RICCI, also known as TONY GOEBELS.

b6
b7C

On July 1, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with bookmaker CHARLES KAUFMAN. He placed several bets on major league baseball games with this individual.

On July 2, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with Miami area bookmaker MICKEY ZION. ROSENTHAL placed several bets on major league baseball games.

On July 4, 1965, [redacted] was in telephonic contact with STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service). [redacted] inquired as to where [redacted] was staying in Chicago. She was then heard to repeat the Continental Plaza, telephone 943-7200.

On July 7, 1965, FRANK ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with an unknown individual. He related that he had just returned from Chicago.

On July 8, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service). ROSENTHAL inquired if GREEN had received the "line" changes from "The Greek."

On July 8, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with [redacted] Apparently, ROSENTHAL was informed by this individual that an individual named [redacted] (phonetic) had been arrested by Immigration and Naturalization Service and [redacted] was afraid that this individual, [redacted] might talk. ROSENTHAL reflected that he would like to go with [redacted] to see [redacted] who was then being detained in the Bahamas. ROSENTHAL said that he would meet [redacted] at the Point Lounge at 11:30 P. M. this date.

On July 9, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with #10 (probably DAVE YARRAS). He advised DAVE that [redacted] had been using his number for scores. ROSENTHAL said that he would change DAVE's number with Multiple Sports News Service.

b6
b7C

On July 10, 1965, ROSENTHAL and JERRY ZAROWITZ engaged in a lengthy conversation. ROSENTHAL mentioned the "head" and JERRY said he had seen [redacted] (phonetic) around Vegas for a week or so.

ROSENTHAL mentioned that DAVEY (probably DAVE YARRAS) is here but JERRY said he was supposed to meet DAVE here in Miami, but he had already gone back to Chicago. JERRY said he is leaving tomorrow.

ROSENTHAL inquired as to how things were going out there. JERRY said that they had had some problems with a strike that started with Western Engineers and spread to the Carpenters. JERRY stated that they now expect to open around the first of July 1966. JERRY reflected that he had been doing a little dabbling in the stock market.

ROSENTHAL asked JERRY whom he could call in Vegas for reservations for a good room. ROSENTHAL continued that [redacted] himself and several other individuals were thinking about a trip to Vegas. JERRY stated that he will be back in a short time and ROSENTHAL could call him at his office number, 734-7110.

JERRY stated that off the record he thinks JOE (probably JOSEPH NESLINE) is interested in coming into this proposition. JERRY then changed the conversation to the expected trip of ROSENTHAL and others to Vegas and stated that the Tropicana was the best place to stay. He stated that [redacted] is there and could take care of them.

b6
b7C

ROSENTHAL said that he wanted to know if the rooms are nice and ROSENTHAL further stated that he might consider the Riviera because the Chicago people hang out there. JERRY said that he is returning non-stop to Los Angeles and then going to Las Vegas.

Both individuals commented on redacted. JERRY stated that [redacted] is out there with [redacted] ROSENTHAL said that they travel alot together and JERRY said that [redacted] stayed at the Riviera and [redacted] at the Sands. ROSENTHAL asked if [redacted] was by himself and JERRY replied that he came out with a fellow from New York by the name of [redacted] ROSENTHAL and JERRY agreed that [redacted] is trying to get in and get his brother in there too.

ROSENTHAL commented to JERRY, "Listen, you got four guys coming in when he got control of [redacted] money, [redacted] money and he got the big guy, that old man from St. Louis." ROSENTHAL commented, "Yeah, the guy from St. Louis who is busting everybody up." (The above conversation probably relates to the betting combination of GIL BECKLEY).

ROSENTHAL continued, stating that BECKLEY has got MARTY (MARTY KANE) working for him on a salary basis. ROSENTHAL said that he thinks MARTY gets $1.00 a week and after the ice, he is minus.

ROSENTHAL and JERRY then turned their conversation to "POSSUM" (JOSEPH NESLINE). ROSENTHAL remarked that positively "POSSUM" is crazy. He said, "No, you see JOE has to have three or four people around him all the time and he just dont have it in Miami." He will call me up and say come over. He calls up MARTY and tells him to come over.

On July 11, 1965, ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with bookmaker MARTY KANE. ROSENTHAL inquired as to how [redacted] and "The Curtain" are betting. b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL was in telephonic conversation with bookmaker MICKEY ZION and inquired from him the "line" on major league baseball games for this date.

On 6/19/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with GIL BECKLEY. ROSENTHAL related that he had been in Chicago and had just returned on Friday. He mentioned that the shirt maker was from [redacted] ROSENTHAL stated he makes good shirts but "he aint no good for money." b6 b7C

On 6/23/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with Triple A Letter Service, Miami. ROSENTHAL asked an individual at this business establishment if colored paper can be copied. ROSENTHAL said that he was advised by someone in California that certain paper cannot be copied. ROSENTHAL was then heard to relate that red paper with black printing would be the ideal combination. (It is noted that Triple A Letter Service is the printer for publications published by Multiple Sports News Service).

On 6/23/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with bookmaker MARTY KANE. ROSENTHAL inquired how [redacted] and you betting.

ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with local bookmaker CHARLES KAUFMAN. ROSENTHAL placed several bets on major league baseball games.

On 6/23/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with [redacted] ROSENTHAL stated that he will talk to 0 (probably TONY SPILOTRO, Chicago Jewel Thief) and relay the message from [redacted]

On 6/29/65, ROSENTHAL and STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service) engage in a lengthy conversation. GREEN advised ROSENTHAL that #4 (JOHN PROKOS, Miami bookmaker and oddsmaker) is calling before 9:15 a.m. and this is too early as MUTT (MORTON KAUFMAN, handicapper for Multiple Sports News Service) does not relay the "line" until 9:30 a.m. ROSENTHAL inquired if #4 is providing GREEN with accurate pitcher information. GREEN replied in the affirmative.

ROSENTHAL also inquired of GREEN if the procedure of having [redacted] (employee of Multiple Sports News Service), make the morning call to Baltimore is working out. ROSENTHAL cautions GREEN to avoid giving #800 in Baltimore obsolete information. GREEN reflected that [redacted] always calls him from the telephone booth before making the call to #800 in order to secure any late changes in the line of added pitchers.

GREEN related to ROSENTHAL that he had gotten $110 from KENNY (probably KEN HANNA, well-known Florida bookmaker) through "The Greek" (JOHN PROKOS).

ROSENTHAL in telephonic contact with JOSEPH NESLINE. Most of this conversation was inaudible and appeared to be in general social terms.

On 6/30/65, ROSENTHAL and SIDNEY ROSENTHAL (no relation) engage in a lengthy conversation. It appeared that SIDNEY ROSENTHAL was in the process of instituting a one-half million dollar law suit for deformation of character. This conversation was hard to interpret although it was ascertained that SIDNEY ROSENTHAL was trying to get the support of FRANK ROSENTHAL in this endeavor.

On 6/30/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic contact with CHRIS PROKOS, brother of JOHN "The Greek" PROKOS. ROSENTHAL assured PROKOS that they will eventually get their money from DICK PEARSON, Miami Jewel Thief. ROSENTHAL stated that he had found out from [redacted] (Miami area criminal attorney) that RICHARD PEARSON had sent $2500 to [redacted] (Miami Jewel Thief) for bond money which was supposed to go to ROSENTHAL if [redacted] did not use it. ROSENTHAL continued, stating that [redacted] had sold [redacted] boat and paid off a debt owed by PEARSON to TONY RICCI, aka TONY GOEBELS.

On 7/1/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with bookmaker CHARLES KAUFMAN. He placed several bets on major league baseball games with this individual.

On 7/2/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with Miami area bookmaker MICKEY ZION. ROSENTHAL placed several bets on major league baseball games.

On 7/4/65, [redacted] in telephonic contact with STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service). [redacted] inquired as to where [redacted] was staying in Chicago. She was then heard to repeat the Continental Plaza, telephone 943-7200.

On 7/7/65, FRANK ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with unknown individual. He related that he had just returned from Chicago.

On 7/8/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with STAN GREEN (Multiple Sports News Service). ROSENTHAL inquired if GREEN had received the "line" changes from "The Greek."

On 7/8/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with [redacted] Apparently ROSENTHAL was informed by this individual that an individual named [redacted] (Ph.) had been arrested by INS and [redacted] was afraid that this individual, [redacted] might talk. ROSENTHAL reflected that he would like to go with [redacted] to see [redacted] who was then being detained in the Bahamas. ROSENTHAL said that he would meet [redacted] at the Point Lounge at 11:30 p.m. this date.

On 7/9/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with #10 (probably DAVE YARRAS). He advised DAVE that [redacted] [redacted] had been using his number for scores. ROSENTHAL said that he would change DAVE's number with Multiple Sports News Service.

On 7/10/65, ROSENTHAL and JERRY ZAROWITZ engage in a lengthy conversation. ROSENTHAL mentioned the "head" and JERRY said he had seen [redacted] (Ph.) around Vegas for a week or so.

ROSENTHAL mentioned that DAVEY (probably DAVE YARRAS) is here but JERRY said he was supposed to meet DAVE here in Miami, but he had already gone back to Chicago. JERRY said he is leaving tomorrow.

ROSENTHAL inquired as to how things were going out there. JERRY said that they had had some problems with a strike that started with Western Engineers and spread to the Carpenters. JERRY stated that they now expect to open around the first of July, 1966. JERRY reflected that he had been doing a little dabbling in the stock market.

ROSENTHAL asked JERRY who he could call in Vegas for reservations for a good room. ROSENTHAL continued that [redacted] himself and several other individuals were thinking about a trip to Vegas. JERRY stated that he will be back in a short time and ROSENTHAL could call him at his office number, 734-7110.

JERRY stated that off the record he thinks JOE (probably JOSEPH NESLINE) is interested in coming into this proposition. JERRY then changed the conversation to the expected trip of ROSENTHAL AND others to Vegas and stated that the Tropicana was the best place to stay. He stated that [redacted] is there and could take care of them. b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL said that he wanted to know if the rooms are nice and ROSENTHAL further stated that he might consider the Riviera because the Chicago people hang out there. JERRY said that he is returning non-stop to Los Angeles and then going to Las Vegas.

Both individuals commented on [redacted] (Ph.). JERRY stated that [redacted] is out there with [redacted] ROSENTHAL said that they travel a lot together and JERRY said that [redacted] stayed at the Riviera and [redacted] at the Sands. ROSENTHAL asked if [redacted] was by himself and JERRY replied that he came out with a fellow from New York by the name of [redacted] ROSENTHAL and JERRY agreed that [redacted] is trying to get in and get his brother in there too.

ROSENTHAL commented to JERRY, "Listen, you got four guys coming in when he got control of [redacted] money, [redacted] money and he got the big guy, that old man from St. Louis." ROSENTHAL commented, "Yeah, the guy from St. Louis who is busting everybody up." (The above conversation probably relates to the betting combination of GIL BECKLEY).

ROSENTHAL continued, stating that BECKLEY has got MARTY (MARTY KANE) working for him on a salary basis. ROSENTHAL said that he thinks MARTY gets $1.00 a week and after the ice, he is minus.

ROSENTHAL and JERRY then turn their conversation to "POSSUM" (JOSEPH NESLINE). ROSENTHAL remarked that positively "POSSUM" is crazy. He said "No, you see JOE has to have three or four people around him all the time and he just dont have it in Miami." He will call me up and say come over. He calls up MARTY and tells him to come over.

On 7/11/65, ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with bookmaker MARTY KANE. ROSENTHAL inquired as to how [redacted] and "The Curtain" are betting. b6 b7C

ROSENTHAL in telephonic conversation with bookmaker MICKEY ZION and inquired from him the "line" on major league baseball games for this date.
